RED CHINA RELEASES 11 U.S. AIRMEN

Red Delegate at Geneva Reports Fliers on Way to Hong Kong

11 Will Reach Destination On Thursday

Ambassador Reveals Decision by Peiping To U.S. Negotiator

GENEVA (AP) — Red China announced today 11 released American fliers would arrive at Hong Kong Thursday to be turned over to the United States They left Peiping Sunday

This was the opening word by Wang Ping nan, Peiping s ambassador to Warsaw at his first meeting here today with U Alexis Johnson the U S ambassador to Czechoslovakia, on the series of private talks aimed at easing tensions in the Far East

Agree on Opening Topic

A communique announced that they had agreed the first order of business in Geneva was the repatriating of about 40 American civilians, also held by the Peiping regime

Wang and Johnson met for 45 minutes in their initial conference It was held after Peiping radio disclosed the release of the 11 American fliers but did not say when they would reach Hong Kong

There was no immediate report as to what Johnson said in the closed meeting

Johnson and Wang arrived Sunday Wang hinted that a settlement on the civilian prisoners might be near He said if both sides approached the talks in a spirit of sincerity it should be possible ' to reach, first of all, a reasonable settlement on the question of the repatriation of civilians '

Johnson had little to say on arrival other than that his mission was outlined fully in the State Department s July 26 statement announcing arrangemnts for the negotiations

Meet in Palace of Nations

This statement stressed that the main American aim would be release of the 40 civilians either in prison under house arrest or denied exit permits It said the U S government hopes agreement on this problem will "facilitate further discussions and settlement of other practical matters now in issue '

Among those the statement

Ike Expresses Relief, Joy at White House

President Promises Speed in Reuniting of Airmen With Families

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today Red China s announcement that 11 American airmen are to be released is a cause for nationwide relief and joy

The White House issued a statement by the President less than an hour after Peiping radio broadcast word that the imprisoned fliers had been ordered freed

Press Secretary James C Hagerty said the government had received advance word early this morning from the British military attache at Peiping that the announcement might be forthcoming

Statement Released

Eisenhower s statement said

' The entire country will feel a sense of relief and hail with joy the announcement that the 11 United States airmen held in Communist China since 1953 are at last to be released

' Our first thoughts go to the men and their families who have been separated for so long The government will use every appropriate facility to insure the speedy reunion of these families

"The United States extends thanks to all who have contributed to this humanitarian result, particularly to the United Nations and its secretary general, who actively sought this result on behalf of the United Nations command in which these 11 fliers served "

The U N. secretary, Dag Hammarskjold made a trip to Red China earlier this year in an effort to get the fliers released, and has been continuing to seek their release in negotiations through diplomatic channels

May Fly Relatives

Hagerty said there has not been time to work out details of how the airmen will be reunited with their families He added however, he expected the Air Force would fly relatives at least part way to the Far East as was done in the case of three airmen released previously

In any case Hagerty said, the government will see to it the airmen join their families ' as soon as is humanly possible '

In Congress also there were general expressions of joy Some members said it raised hopes that other Americans held in Red China may be released Some 40 U S civilians are in China

Secretary of State Dulles had indicated even before Hagerty s statement that the United States had received direct word from Peiping prior to the Red broadcast which gave the news to the world generally

Dulles was met by reporters as he entered the State Department's

Yanks Coming Home After 32 Months in Jail

TOKYO (AP)—Red China announced tonight it was releasing "immediately" 11 U S airmen whose conviction for "spying" was one major cause of friction with the United States

It was possible they may be freed Tuesday after nearly 32 months in Red China's prisons

At Geneva, Red China's ambassador to Warsaw, Wang Ping nan said the fliers already had been released and would arrive at Hong Kong Thursday to be turned over to the United States

A Peiping Radio announcement that they had been ordered released came as representatives of the United States and Red China met at Geneva, primarily to discuss release of Americans in China

The broadcast did not say when or where the 11, who were shot down in the Korean War, would be released But the probable exit is the British colony of Hong Kong

If the Communists act as promptly as they did in releasing four other airmen, then the 11 may walk free Tuesday

Last May 30, Peiping announced that Capt Harold E Fischer Jr., Swea City, Iowa, a double jet ace of the Korean War, and three others were being released They reached Hong Kong the next day. They were accused of violating the air over Red China during the war.

In Washington President Eisenhower said that ' the entire country will feel a sense of relief and hail with joy the announcement that the 11 United States airmen held in Communist China since 1953 are at last to be released "

Praises Hammerskjold

Eisenhower praised United Nation's secretary Dag Hammerskjold, who flew to Red China early this year to seek their release and who has been negotiating through diplomatic channels since.

The 11 were in a B29 which was shot down Jan. 12, 1953, on what the Far East Air Forces called ' a routine leaflet dropping mission over North Korea "

The 11 and their sentences are

Bus Service Is Over; Council Plans Meeting

Marion was without bus service today following discontinuance of its operation here by the Marion City Lines, division of Springfield City Lines, Inc , at shortly after 6 p m Saturday

Whether the city will take action to purchase or lease and operate the buses may be decided definitely at a meeting to be held at 7 30 p m Tuesday at city hall

City Council called the meeting to investigate further the offer of the company to sell or lease its equipment to the city for a total price of $11,000 or a monthly rental of $100 for each bus

Council previously indicated that it does not feel that it can operate the buses at a profit as claimed by the company But some of the councilmen said they felt it was their duty ot investigate fully the company offer and if it can be proven the city can operate the buses at a break even point, then it is the duty of the city to provide the service

The company reported it lost $4 500 in 15 months of operation but said that through possible tax savings the city should be able to earn a $2,000 profit on the operation over the same period of time

The meeting Tuesday night will be to try to determine whether this is possible

Tackles Housing, Pay Bills

Congress Is Hoping To Quit by Tonight

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Congress adjournment plans were snarled today by disputes over public housing and pay raises for its own employes Other major legislation was also pending

Leaders in both branches fixed tonight as their new goal for quitting

The House kept working Saturday night until 7 38 p m and the Senate until 10 45 p m But neither cleared the way for adjournment in advance of the July 31 deadline set up in the 1946 Reorganization Act

More Delay Possible

Some lawmakers said privately the session might last two or three more days

Three key measures tied up in Senate House conferences make up the bulk of the remaining work load although lawmakers interested in numerous other bills will make last ditch efforts to get them through The three are

1 The housing bill, on which Senate-House conferees met until almost midnight Saturday and then broke up in a sharp disagreement on public housing

2 The Defense Production Act to extend several powers requested by President Eisenhower in the mobilization program Almost the same conferees are involved in this as on the housing bill

3 The 92-million-dollar legislative appropriations bill, final money measure of the session Conferees failed to reach agreement on this Friday did not meet Saturday

The housing bill, vital to continuance of boom conditions in the nation's home-building industry, may well be the biggest hurdle to adjournment tonight

Eisenhower asked for 35 000 new public housing units in each of the next two years The Senate upped this figure steeply to 135 000 units a year for the next four years, but the House eliminated all public housing from the measure

In the haggling Saturday night Senate Democratic conferees offered to compromise on 50,000 units for one year But the House group refused to accept this, holding out for no more than the 70,000 units over a two-year period asked by the President They said they would have no chance to get any more through the House

Pay Raise Issue

The conferees reported tentative agreement Saturday on the other provisions of the bill extending such important government housing programs as FHA home mortgage insurance

The deadlock over the legislative money bill was unusual Ordinarily each branch puts into this

Only 3 Days Under 85

Hot in July?—You Bet; August Brings No Relief

"Whew' Glad that month's over '

This appeared to be the universal feeling of Marionites after one of the hottest Julys in memory, a month featuring 11 days of over-90 temperatures and only three days in which the mercury failed to climb past 85

UNFORTUNATELY, August is starting out no better.

The weatherman is calling for another 90-degree day today—with plenty of humidity thrown in to add to the discomfort

And no relief is in sight The forecast for Tuesday is for more heat and humidity

July bowed out Sunday with a typical high reading—93 degrees The low during the night was 66

Although it was plenty hot here during the month Marionites can find some consolation in the fact that it was even hotter elsewhere Many cities in Ohio recorded more than 20 days of temperatures 90 or better.

Of the month's 31 days, 17 had the mercury climbing to between 85 and 90 here On the remaining days temperatures of 80 or slightly above were recorded

HOTTEST DAY of the summer to date occurred on July 27, when the mercury reached 97 degrees. This reading is only one degree below the high for last year, when on July 15 thermometers at the local weather station read 98

On that hottest day this year, the Marion Water Co pumped 3 9 million gallons of water, but even on that day the capacity at the pumping station was not taxed, with only 10 of the 15 wells operating

EVEN AT THE peaks of use this summer customers are using only about two-thirds of the capacity of the pumping station

Rainfall during the month totaled a little more than three and three-quarter inches, which is below the average July rainfall.

846,000 More Salk Vaccine Shots Released

WASHINGTON (AP)—Private physicians and public health agencies will start getting Salk polio vaccine this month for inoculation of children 5-9 years of age

The Public Health Service announced Sunday it has allocated enough for 846 000 shots That amount will become available as soon as individual states report how much is to go to health agencies and how much to physicians

More vaccine will be apportioned as it is manufactured and cleared for use

First General Distribution

The distribution is the first under the department s voluntary program for placing the vaccine where it is most needed Except for limited supplies which moved into commercial channels last April The vaccine is the first to go to private physicians

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has received almost all the vaccine manufactured to date for use in its free immunization of first and second grade schoolchildren It reported Saturday its current needs have been met although it said three million cubic centimeters more will be necessary to complete its program this fall

Based on Numbers

Apportionment to the states was based on the number of children each has in the 5-9 year age group not included in the free vaccination program

That age group is most susceptible to the disease

Older and younger children will become eligible later when more vaccine is available

Each state governor has designated officials to oversee the distribution of vaccine State and local medical societies also are expected to see that physicians limit the inoculations to children in the age priority groups

Governor Calls Public Hearing For Pike Route

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP) — Gov Frank J Lausche today set Thursday for a public hearing on the route of the proposed Cincinnati-Conneaut turnpike through Ashtabula Geauga Lake and Cuyahoga counties

He sent telegrams to mayors county commissioners and engineers in those counties inviting them to attend the hearing and present their views on how the turnpike should be routed

Calls for Views

The hearing will begin at 10 a m EST in the state office building in Columbus Telegrams from the governor to 37 persons said he would be 'glad to hear your views on the subject and hope you can attend "

Routing of the turnpike in the Cuyahoga County area has been a controversial subject The first tentative line ran the proposed turnpike east of Cleveland

While some Cleveland officials want the turnpike brought closer to Ohio s largest city there is support for the move to run it farther out

Engineering studies on whether the proposed 410-mile toll road would be practical and pay for itself—as well as attract buyers of bonds to finance its construction—are to be finished in a few months

Seek Public Reaction

The Thursday hearing will give consulting engineers more data on exactly how residents in the four counties want the turnpike to run

If routed closer to Cleveland the turnpike is expected to attract more traffic and to tie in closer with Cleveland s expressway system

The governor has the last word on where a turnpike will be routed His recommendations together with those of the state highway director are sent to the Ohio Turnpike Commission which will decide whether the turnpike should be built

U S officials in Washington have said that Red China s attitude on the Americans detained—including 11 imprisoned fliers—would determine the scope of the Geneva talks

The scene of the meetings is the Palace of Nations, European headquarters of the U N where the Big Four summit talks were held U S officials estimated that talks might last at least two weeks Both sides have indicated that if the negotiations achieve positive results they may be followed by a meeting between Secretary of State Dulles and Red China s Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai

Wang's statement made no reference to the 11 American fliers The United States will insist they be released before any broader negotiations

There appeared to be some differences of opinion as to just how broad the talks should be The United States had said repeatedly that it will not take up matters involving any third party meaning Nationalist China This, however, would not bar discussion of a Formosa cease fire in the opinion of U S officials

Johnson stressed today that as far as the United States is concerned there will be little or no information given to the press on the talks The American also told photographers that he would not permit pictures of himself and Wang in the conference room although Wang already had said he had no objections

The Times said the National Security Council has not okayed the Stassen plan because of the Pentagon and State Department objections but that Stassen hopes to meet the criticism The new plan was described as calling for

A complete halt to the production of atomic and hydrogen bombs, as well as to further H-bomb tests

12 American Farmers in Russia See More Banquets Than Farms

KRASNODAR, U S S R (AP)—The touring American farmers are having a hard time convincing their Russian hosts they came to see the Soviet Union s farms not to eat and drink to over capacity

Worn out from the huge quantities of food and vodka with which they have been entertained everywhere, the Americans asked on arrival in the Koban farm lands Saturday that they be spared the vodka They got champagne instead

Yesterday they amazed their hosts by insisting they be shown some farms instead of making a scheduled visit to the champagne bottling works and another long lunch

The Russians finally agreed and the 12 Americans toured several neighboring collective farms The visitors reportedly found these farms less impressive than the ones at which they've been expected

The Americans began throwing searching questions at their hosts

According to the newspaper Soviet Agriculture Ferris Owen Newark, Ohio farmer, demanded to know whether a worker on a Soviet state farm could obtain a state loan to build his own house, and on what interest

J M Kleiner of Nampa Idaho also wanted to know about state loans and whether they were automatically deducted from the salaries of state farm workers Soviet Agriculture said the answer to Kleiner was that such deductions from salaries were prohibited in the Soviet Union

"Such payments can be collected only through the courts but this state farm has not yet had occasion to resort to such methods ' the paper said

The other board, created when the new truck tax was enacted, is composed of Tax Commissioner Stanley J Bowers, O'Neill and Felty

Youth Nabbed Here After Halting Train By Blocking Rails

Chances are 16 - year - old William Banks of Columbus will do his traveling by car or bus in the future His experience with trains has been unfortunate

The boy was taken off a C & O freight train in Marion Saturday night after boarding the train earlier south of Fostoria

He had placed a crossing timber across the tracks apparently to halt the train so he could hop aboard it, railroad policemen charged

The train — a freight bound for Columbus — did stop thanks to a warning from another C & O. freight which saw the rail and reported the obstruction to railroad authorities

After hearing of the incident, railroad police recalled having talked earlier in the day with a youth who was picked up on a freight arriving in Fostoria from Kentucky The boy told them he had hopped aboard with the idea of getting off at Columbus, but overslept

Railroad police put two and two together and theorized that the freight may have been stopped by the same boy who now was attempting to return to Columbus.

They were right

He was picked up at the Marion yards by railroad police and sheriff s deputies who took him to the County Detention Home to await filing of charges

The case probably will be turned over to juvenile authorities in Columbus Seneca County Sheriff John W Dysard said

At the Capitol, Sen Knowland of California the Senate Republican leader made this statement

"The American people will welcome home the 11 American airmen not as pardoned criminals as stated by the Peiping radio but as honored members of our Air Force who have been illegally held by the Chinese Communists in flagrant violation of the Korean armistice "

House Republican Leader Martin (Mass) said he hoped the release of the 11 men ' will not lead us into unwise conclusions "

Conflict of Interest By George Sokolsky

The case of Harold Talbott, Secretary of the Air Force, raises the issue of conflict of interest If the administration is to recruit men of talent to manage the various departments of government, the area for recruitment is likely to be limited to men who have proved their abilities and capacities in some phases of private business, except in such fields where scientific and academic disciplines are desired.

SOKOLSKY

The man who succeeds in management in private business is likely to own shares of stocks in various companies, to have some money in the bank, to own a home, to be engaged in partnerships, or to be the proprietor of a business. It is now required of such men that they divest themselves of some of these interests when there is a possibility, immediate or remote, of a conflict between their private affairs and their position in government. The sacrifice is so great that few are willing to make it.

THE CRITIC OF THE successful man asks: "How much money does a man need?" The only one who can answer that question is the man who is being asked to give up what it has taken him a life-time to accumulate. If he does not choose to make the sacrifice, the government has to do without his services. The question then is. Does the government require his particular type of talents?

The law prevents the administration from doing what private business can do. For instance, President Eisenhower cannot go to a competent manager, say like Charles Wilson or Harold Talbott, and say to him: "On what terms will you manage a department of government?" The law limits the salaries of officials; it takes into consideration no obvious facts, such as fixed commitments for rent, insurance, and other contracts; it does not ask what pension arrangements are to be sacrificed. It only says, "This is the job; this is the pay."

SOME MEN LIKE honor and power and take these jobs. Some believe that when the government calls, they should answer. Some men find very quickly that they cannot make ends meet, what with the necessity for two homes and the enormous additional expense of public life. In the Eisenhower administration, there has been an extraordinary turnover on the second level because men have been unable to continue to work for the government as much as they should like to. This is a matter for personal decision and no other person can sit in judgment of a man's requirements.

Government operations have become so complex that expert managers are essential in a number of positions. For instance, Harold Talbott's job is one that demands proved managerial skill and a great knowledge of manufacturing processes It will not serve the United States if in Talbott's place were to go a ward-heeling politican who does not know how an airplane is constructed or what an electron does. Younger lawyers might gain their experience at public expense in the department of Justice, but such men cannot serve on the Atomic Energy Commission or in the technical phases of the Pentagon.

THE ETERNAL politician knows by his type of experience how to avoid pitfalls which to the business man are not pitfalls at all. Harold Talbott, for instance, would never have thought that writing such letters as got him into trouble would present any problem of conflict of interest as, indeed, there is none. In fact, the reason the letters were available was that the Mulligan Company, of which he is a partner, gave the letters to the McClellan committee freely and without a subpoena. To a business man, such letters are not a conflict of interest; to the practical politican, anything is a conflict of interest which might at the wrong time and under the wrong circumstances become public.

If the government is to utilize managerial skill, it must pay for it and it must plan arrangements to make government employment attractive. Otherwise, except in the emergency of war, competent, tried and experienced men will not work at tasks which do not pay attractively, are of short duration and place the individual at the mercy of publicity-hungry politicians and ambitious young lawyers. The Hoover Commission offered a solution to this problem which has thus far been ignored But this is certain: We cannot operate a great production enterprise in national defense without managerial skill.

Full Employment By James Mitchell

(Victor Riesel is en route to Asia to cover developments there affecting labor. Today Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell is guest columnist, with an important report on recent legislation and economic developments of concern to the wage-earner.)

Last month more people in the United States had jobs than ever before in our history. In factories, on farms, in mines, banks, stores and shops across the nation, over 64 million Americans were at work.

Also, unemployment was greatly improved. The figures for June show that the seasonal rise in unemployment was smaller than expected this year. Usually, in past years, large numbers of students entered the labor market in June and unemployment jumped fairly substantially.

This did not happen this year because the students found jobs quickly. So actually, when adjusted for this seasonal factor, unemployment in June fell to the lowest level in a year and a half.

IT'S IMPORTANT to note that the take-home pay of workers in industry is at record levels, with the average family man having $70 12 a week to spend and the single worker $62 83 And workers can buy more with their pay than ever before. This is true because the cost of the things a worker and his family buy has remained practically the same for months now and inflation no longer has its greedy hand in the worker's pay envelope.

These facts, together with evidence that our nation's production of goods and services this year is running at the unbelievable rate of 380 billion dollars, point to 1955 as being a record high level year of prosperity for the American wage-earner.

Other records are also being made in 1955 In the past six months more has been done by the states to improve the conditions of workers and their families than in the previous 20 years

SHORTLY AFTER President Eisenhower took office he said "Now there is need to review and assess with prudence and foresight the proper roles of the federal, state and local governments In many cases, especially within the past 20 years, the federal government has entered fields which, under our Constitution, are the primary responsibilities of state and local governments. This has led to duplication and waste"

In several messages since then, the President has urged the states to act to improve their own labor standards laws. In addition, I have followed up the President's request by writing to each of the state governors, also urging such improvement.

The states have been quick to recognize their obligation to their citizens, and great progress has been made. The record to date demonstrates that an effective federal-state partnership in the labor field is being developed and that significant and lasting progress can be made by encouraging state action.

FOR EXAMPLE, at this writing, amendments to strengthen workmen's compensation have been introduced in almost every one of the 45 state legislatures meeting this year. In 38 states those amendments have been enacted into law. Four of these states increased the maximum weekly benefits for temporary total disability to $40 or more, making 15 states and territories which now provide that amount.

Many minimum wage bills were introduced, 11 being in states which had no minimum wage law. In 3 of those 11, minimum wage laws protecting workers were enacted.

Bills amending unemployment insurance laws were introduced in practically all state legislatures. Maximum weekly benefits have been increased in 23 states and two territories, 10 of which now have a basic weekly benefit above $30 The 10 states which have a maximum of $30 or better account for 70 per cent of all workers in the country covered by unemployment insurance.

FIVE STATES and one territory have improved their industrial safety laws and regulations to give greater protection to workers on the job.

Equal-pay bills were introduced in 8 states not formerly having such laws, and amendments were proposed to 4 existing laws. Three states with no previous equal-pay legislation passed such laws this year for the first time.

Admittedly this state-by-state approach takes more time and patience than direct federal action, but the resultant structure is sounder.

One need but accept the obvious fact that state legislatures can adapt their laws to special local situations to realize the added strength inherent in such a program. The response of the states has been, as I have indicated, more than encouraging.

It's true that a few states have seen fit to pass what many, myself included, consider unnecessary and oppressive legislation restricting the rights of workers. However, the great majority of the states rejected such actions, and I believe that eventually states having such laws will realize they are against the best interests of the public and repeal them.

I MUST STRESS the patience factor of the program, however. certain recommendations, of course, to encourage the states to design their statutes along lines that would do the country as a whole the most good in addition to fulfilling their own local needs.

He would like to see, for instance, an unemployment insurance weekly benefit that represents half a worker's average salary, and which he could draw for half a year. Very few current laws meet that recommendation—but the states are reaching toward it by raising the maximum benefits paid and increasing the duration of time in which benefits may be drawn

These advances bear out President Eisenhower's convictions that, given the proper stimulus, the states can and will accept and fulfill their responsibilities in those areas of labor standards legislation reserved to them by the Constitution.

For Labor as a whole, this faith in the states' responsibility augurs a sound, secure future.

Bus Company Orders Curfew

Violence Is Feared In Little Rock, Ark.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (AP) — Because of what company officials termed "first-degree murder" attempts against nonunion drivers, bus service after 8 p m. has been suspended in Little Rock and North Little Rock.

Eugene Warren, attorney for Capital Transit Co, announced the curfew Sunday night. He said it would remain in effect "until proper authorities can restore safety of night travel on public thoroughfares."

Warren said the decision to withdraw the company's nonunion drivers "from the line of fire" came after six separate incidents were reported to police Saturday night.

Officials of the AFL Motor Coach Employes Union, whose 178 drivers and mechanics left their jobs June 22, have repeatedly denied company charges that the union was behind the violence.

B. Beryl Bland, president of the striking union, said that the transit company was using reports of violence as "a golden opportunity to discontinue service at night when profits are small."

Saturday night's incidents, which followed three weeks of scattered violent acts, involved four buses on runs in both cities. The driver of one bus said the vehicle was struck three times.

The labor dispute involved the selection of a third member of an arbitration committee to rule on union demands, including a 14-cent increase in the $1 31 to $1.61 hourly wage.

Since the company has hired new drivers and mechanics, it has maintained that the strikers are no longer employes and has refused to negotiate further.

Honus Wagner of Pittsburgh and Rogers Hornsby with St. Louis and Boston each won the National League batting championship seven times. Stan Musial of St. Louis won it six times.

Depressed Girl Takes Her Life With Shotgun

WESTON, Conn. (AP) — Lynn Faust, 19, kept after her boy friend to take her crow hunting.

They went off into the deep woods Sunday.

Lynn begged her beau Buell Neidlinger, 19, to let her carry his 16-gauge shotgun. He passed it over to her. She took it, leaned against a tree and put the end of the barrel under her chin.

Neidlinger was startled.

"You're not thinking of doing anything with that?" he asked.

No, Lynn said. Then she kissed him, told him she loved him and darted off suddenly. Neidlinger was puzzled for a moment, but ran after her.

Before he could reach her, he saw her stop, place the gun under her chin again and pull the trigger. She died instantly.

Dr. Harry S. Phillips, medical examiner, said Lynn committed suicide. He said she had suicidal tendencies.

Neidlinger was so badly shaken he required medical treatment.

He suffered bruises and his companion, Charles Frederick Johnson, 16, son of Mrs. Bernice Johnson of west of Carey, suffered head and right arm cuts which required three stitches and seven stitches, respectively. Hot Weather Hints By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Hot enough, for you?

Millions of Americans, sweltering under heat waves that have gripped most of the nation, have been complaining they felt more like humid beings than people.

HAL BOYLE

But it's really your own fault if you let rising temperatures get you down.

Why suffer from ready-made weather? Why not build your own climate? Any do-it-yourself fan should find it easy.

—.—

HERE ARE A FEW HINTS on how anyone can breeze through a heat wave:

1. Quit using the English language. Learn bop talk. Then everything will be "cool, man, cool."

2. If you are bald and don't wear a hat, tie some moistened grape leaves around your head—first being sure, of course, to remove the grapes If you are afraid people will stare at you, put on some Bermuda shorts, too. Then they'll stare at your shorts, and never even notice the grape leaves.

3. Think only cool thoughts, such as: "shouldn't I be buying winter chains for my car?", or, "I wonder what Santa Claus is doing right this very minute—trying to keep warm?"

4. Whatever you do don't fall to brooding about red-haired girls or how many bills you owe. This only heats up the blood.

5 If you must quarrel with your wife, take off your shirt first. Then you can't get hot under the collar.

6. Keep your shoes overnight in the refrigerator, and be sure to take two pairs to work. Ask the nearest restaurant owner to let you put one pair in his icebox Then, every two hours, you slip down to the restaurant, take off the shoes you're wearing, put on the cool ones, and slip the heated pair into the icebox

7. IF THE RESTAURANT owner adopts a snooty attitude toward this reasonable request, make up your mind each morning that before nightfall you're going to ask the boss to double your salary. This'll give you real cold feet.

8. Don't merely cut down on your food intake. Quit eating altogether. Soon it will be impossible for you to feel hot. All you'll feel is hungry.

9. An old Boy Scout trick on the march in hot weather is to keep a pebble in the mouth. Why stop with one? Use several. But be sure to cool them periodically at the office water fountain. One of your fellow hired hands may quip, "look, he's got rocks in his head." Pay him no heed. People always jeer at pioneers. They used to laugh at Davy Crockett, but now he's earning more money than Lassie—which is pretty good considering they call these "the dog days."

10. It is better to avoid alcoholic beverages in hot weather, but if you must drink, then you might try Martinis. Martini drinkers rarely know what century they're in, let alone the season.

As a last resort, you can lie down on the office floor and start crawling around aimlessly. When someone asks what you're looking for, you reply indignantly, "why, four-leaf clovers, of course—what else?"

The boss is sure to send you home for the day—perhaps even in an air-conditioned ambulance.

Heat waves? Anybody can whip 'em with a little gumption and a bit of that old Yankee ingenuity. Nobody'd ever get crazy with the heat if he'd just do one thing. Keep cool-

Rev. Paul L. O'Connor Chosen

Former Navy Chaplain Named Head of Xavier U.

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Rev. Paul L. O'Connor, a former Navy chaplain, is the new president of Xavier University, oldest Roman Catholic university in Ohio.

His appointment was announced last night as the Jesuit Fathers gathered in the community refectory for the evening meal. Father O'Connor took the place of honor at the head table to signal his new position.

In accordance with the centuries-old custom of the Society of Jesus, fashioned along military lines by its founder, St. Ignatius of Loyola, there was no prior notice to the other priests of the impending change of administration.

New Loyola President

Almost at the same time the former president of Xavier, the Very Rev. James F. Maguire, 51, was going through the same procedure at Loyola University in Chicago as he became that institution's president.

Father Maguire had been at Xavier for six years. He insisted upon a greater integration of the university with its surrounding community. He was active in the Community Chest, the Mayor's Friendly Relations Committee and the Better Housing League. He was a vigorous crusader for private education as a necessary complement of public education.

In the athletic world, he criticized the faking of football injuries at the time Notre Dame was accused of using those tactics against Iowa.

Xavier's 29th President

Father O'Connor is the 29th president of Xavier, which was founded in 1831. The university now has 3,500 students.

The new Xavier head, a native of Chicago, will be 46 Aug. 10. Before World War II, he was dean of Freshmen at the University of Detroit. He was a Navy chaplain for two years and was aboard the U.S.S. Missouri as ship's chaplain when the Japanese formally surrendered aboard that vessel in September 1945. He holds the rank of lieutenant commander. In 1948 he was appointed Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Xavier.

Father Maguire celebrated solemn high mass at St. Xavier Church in Cincinnati yesterday in observance of the 400th anniversary of the death of St. Ignatius. He then flew to Chicago. He succeeded the Very Rev. James T. Hussey, Loyola president for the last 10 years.

Actress Suzan Ball Is Released From Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Suzan Ball, suffering a recurrence of cancer, has been released from the City of Hope Hospital for continued treatment under guidance of her private physician.

The hospital said Miss Ball's condition remained serious and that a program of therapy and management established at City of Hope will be continued.

Postmaster Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nomination of John J. Wald, Canal Winchester, as postmaster has been confirmed by the Senate.

California's Governor Frightens Off Burglar

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—California's Gov. Goodwin Knight frightened off a burglar he caught prowling in the Miramar Hotel cottage in which he and his wife were sleeping Sunday, police reported.

The Governor said nothing was missing. The only damage was an overturned chair and a drinking glass which was broken by the prowler on his way out.

Bartender Accused

CINCINNATI (AP)—Ray Moore, 32, a bartender, was held on an open charge today in connection with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Mary Spaulding, 32. She attempted to help her husband, James, 28, in a free-for-all fight in a neighborhood cafe yesterday. Police said Moore admitted firing the shot but insisted he intended to shoot in the air to break up the brawl.

Triple Play Assists Indians in Split With Baltimore

Tribe Trails by Full Game As White Sox Sweep Two

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Staff Writer

Take it from the Yanks and Indians, you just can't trust those A's and Orioles any more.

While Chicago was squeaking past Washington Sunday in both games, opening up a one-game lead in the American League, New York and Cleveland were running into trouble with Kansas City and Baltimore and had to settle for splits.

As a result of the weekend's furious action, the Yanks and Tribe are tied for second place as they open a three-game series at Yankee Stadium Tuesday night. Boston, a double winner over Detroit 8-3 and 3-2, is only three games behind the White Sox, who invade Fenway Park for three games, starting Tuesday.

Thanks to the Baltimore Orioles, just a game out of first place, the Cleveland Indians have finished the first half of their Eastern swing. That's just where they were a week ago when they came East.

The Tribe dropped the opener yesterday to Baltimore 4-3, but blanked the Birds 6-0 in the nightcap on the six-hit pitching of Art Houtteman who started a first-inning triple play.

15-3 Edge

The three out of four in Baltimore gave the Tribe a 15-3 edge in games, including one string of 13 straight, over the Orioles, who got only five runs in the four weekend contests.

Tomorrow night the Indians send Early Wynn against New York's Tommy Byrne in Yankee Stadium in a game that will break the current tie for second place. Chicago, one game in front, plays fourth place Boston as the hottest American League pennant race in years heads into the final one-third of the season.

The league's first triple play this season—there have been four in the National League—happened this way:

Wayne Causey and Cal Abrams were on base with a walk and a single when Dave Philley popbunted to Houtteman. Art whirled and threw to shortstop George Strickland at second, doubling Causey, and Strickland's throw to Wertz beat Abrams sliding back to first.

Houtteman's Eighth

While Houtteman was winning his eighth against four losses, the Tribe was punishing Jim Wilson and Art Schallock for a dozen hits. A three-run rally in the fourth put Cleveland in front, with Al Rosen and Larry Doby contributing singles and Hal Naragon a double.

A single by Doby and a double by Gene Woodling made it 4-0 in the sixth, and the final two Tribe runs come in the ninth on successive singles by Houtteman, Al Smith, Bob Avila and Ferris Fain.

Smith hit a double and a single and Avila singled off Ray Moore for the only hits the Indians got in the opener. But three unearned runs in the second inning started the Indians off to a lead. Shortstop Freddie Marsh dropped a pop foul between two walks, and third baseman Causey threw wild to first to let in one run. A sacrifice and Avila's single brought home the other two.

Bob Feller was pitching one of his better games up to the eighth when he walked pinch hitter Hal Smith and Abrams singled for the third Oriole hit. Don Mossi came in to relieve and was rapped for a single by Philley, scoring a run. Jim Dyck doubled home another run, and Philley scored the tying marker on a wild pitch. A single by Bob Hale plated the winning tally.

Sox Take Two

Chicago had to press hard to take Washington 3-1 in 11 innings when a Senators' relief pitcher, Pedro Ramos, hit one man and walked another with the bases loaded. Then they had to hold on tight to ride out a ninth-inning Washington threat and save the second game 6-5.

The recall of Don Larsen from the Denver farm looked like just what the Yankees needed as he threw a four-hitter at the A's in the first game for a 5-2 victory. Then the A's, who humbled New York Saturday 12-2, rose up to score five in the ninth and take the second game 7-1. Gus Zernial's two-run homer in the eighth gave the A's the lead.

Cleveland saw a three-run lead melt away as Baltimore scored four in the eighth to win the first game 4-3. The Indians needed a triple play and a six-hit shutout by Art Houteman for a 6-0 ver-

Maglie Goes To Indians In Cash Deal

NEW YORK, (AP)—Sal (The Barber) Maglie came back to the big town today. This time, though, he returned as a visitor, starting out all over again at 38 as a pitcher for the Cleveland Indians.

Maglie, who helped pitch the New York Giants to two National League pennants and one world championship, will be in the uniform of the Tribe Tuesday night when they open an important three game series against the New York Yankees.

Dealt to the Indians for a reported $25,000 Sunday, Maglie packed his belongings and cleared out of Milwaukee as soon as the Giants finished their double-header with the Braves.

"I'm not disappointed at leaving the Giants," he said, "although it sure is tough breaking my long-time associations with some of my pals."

While he didn't say so, it was generally known that there was no love lost between him and Manager Leo Durocher. Only a month ago, Durocher accused Maglie of loafing on a fielding play.

"The Giants have been my only club," Maglie commented, "but I'm happy to go to Cleveland. I know most of the Indians' players. I shouldn't have any trouble in the American League. The hitters don't have a book on me."

Asked about the condition of his arm—he hasn't pitched a complete game since June 22 and was knocked out in the first inning against the Braves last Saturday—Maglie said:

"My arm is perfectly okay. I don't think I'm following through right. I've experienced trouble like this before and I'm sure I can work it out."

The acquisition of Maglie, who led the Giants to their miracle pennant of 1951 with a 23-6 record, was regarded as a triumph for Indian General Manager Hank Greenberg over the Yankees, who also wanted him.

Denver Drops Toledo Sox as Race Tightens

By The Associated Press

Denver's home-standing Bears squeezed the American Association first division into a one game span Sunday night as they knocked off league leading Toledo 5-4 while the other two top clubs swept doubleheaders.

Second place Minneapolis — one half game behind Toledo—downed Indianapolis by identical 5-2 scores and Omaha drubbed last place Charleston 9-0 before edging the Senators 10-9. Omaha and Denver are tied, one game back, in third place.

The Louisville Colonels, who dropped a pair to St. Paul 7-2 and 5-4, still are only three games off the pace despite their fifth place standing.

Stars Continue Drills

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The College All-Stars opened their second week of drills today for their Aug. 12 game against the Cleveland Browns at Soldier Field.

BACK IN UNIFORM. Six players who entered the Hall of Fame this year gather at Yankee Stadium in New York for Hall of Fame Oldtimers' Day ceremonies before regular Yankees-Athletics game. Left to right are: Joe DiMaggio, Gabby Hartnett, Ted Lyons, Dazzy Vance, Ray Schalk and Frank (Home Run) Baker. They got into action later as Hall of Fame team played the DiMaggio Teammates for two innings, with latter winning, 7-3.

Batting — Ted Williams and Jim Piersall, Red Sox, Williams hit first grand slam homer since 1951 to help win first game 8-3; Piersall led off ninth with homer to down Detroit in second game 3-2.

Pitching — Jack Harshman, White Sox, held Washington to two hits, none in last 8 1-3 innings, to win 11-inning first game of doubleheader 3-1. The White Sox also won the second game 6-5.

Havana Dumps Columbus Jets Twice 2-1, 4-0

By The Associated Press

A bit of rapid rescheduling might help Havana to the International League pennant. The Sugar Kings dote on doubleheaders, which have accounted for more than one third of their 65 triumphs.

The Cubans wrapped up their eleventh twin victory, 2-1 and 4-0, against Columbus yesterday to move within three games of pacesetting Toronto.

The rest of the league did not fare as well, all the other clubs splitting. Syracuse made it 12 victories in the last 14 games, downing Richmond 4-2 in the opener before losing 4-1. The Maple Leafs stayed a half a game ahead of Montreal with a 4-2 triumph after the Royals had taken over the top spot temporarily on a 5-4 decision in the first game.

Paul Lepley's eighth inning grand slammer in the overtime nightcap gave Buffalo an 8-6 victory at Rochester. The Wings took the opener 5-1.

NEW SPORTS HEAD

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — The Rev. Robert Monnin, a native of Russia, Ohio, is the new athletic director at Fenwick High School. The 25-year-old priest, serving St. Peter Claver Church, succeeds the Rev. Paul G. Galvin.

Anthony To Meet Boyd in TV Fight

By The Associated Press

Tony Anthony, a New York Golden Glove grad, either wins or gets knocked out, according to the 23-3 record he takes into tonight's scrap with Bobby Boyd, of Chicago.

Anthony has flattened 18 opponents but all three of his defeats were by knockouts. Boyd has a 53-6-2 record.

Dumont will telecast the 10-round match at St. Nicholas Arena in New York.

Two Marion Teams Open Play in District Tourney

Two Marion softball nines see action tonight in opening district tournament play at Gorman-Rupp Field in Mansfield.

First of four Marion squads entered in this year's competition to see action will be Local 750, UAW which goes against Schmid and Son of Mansfield at 7:45 p.m.

Marion Power Shovel is matched against the Bucyrus Merchants in the nightcap at 9 p.m. Stauter Realty of Mansfield and American Tower of Shelby open the 1955 tourney at 6:30 p.m.

Marion's other two district competitors, Mac's Trading Post, seeded No. 2 in the recent tourney drawings, and Erie don't see action until the second round.

Both are carded for initial action Friday. Erie will play the winner of Tuesday's Mansfield Tappan Stove-Galion Perfection Steel game in the second game. Mac's will take on the winner of the same night's Mansfield Tire-Danville Merchants tilt in the nightcap.

Mount Vernon Victory Market, 1954 tournament champ, is the No. 1 seeded team. Mount Vernon American Legion is No. 3 and Gorman-Rupp, 1948, 1950 and 1953 champs, is No. 4. Farmer's Bank of Ashland, Erie and Bud's Sport Shop of Upper Sandusky are other squads expected to prove tough.

Three games will be played nightly during the first week of the two-week long tournament and then two games a night will be played. The tournament is single-elimination until play has cut the field to four teams. They will battle in double-elimination play then.

Harold Smith, district commissioner, has announced that passes will be issued to the players and they are also good for wives or women friends and will be honored throughout the tournament. Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Marion Speedway To Reopen Sunday

The Marion Speedway will open next Sunday afternoon under new management. Robert and John Fridley of Marion will handle the starting next week.

After Sunday, races will be held each Sunday afternoon for the remainder of the season. Although cars were on hand Sunday at the local track, no races were held. Drivers from Bucyrus, Upper Sandusky and Marion indicated they would return next Sunday.

The track is being oil-treated this week and is expected to be dust-free by next Sunday.

ACROSS THE COUNTER

This is a true incident. Only the name has been changed:

Joe Johnson thought auto insurance was auto insurance—all alike. Naturally then, he chose a company that offered a lower "cost." He never realized the trouble he had bargained for.

Earl J. Andrews

In 1952 his car crashed into a bus. The bus driver was injured and sued. However, he offered to settle for $4,000. The cut-rate insurance company refused and offered $2,500. Mr. Johnson warned the company he would hold it responsible for any judgment brought against him and urged settlement since the bus driver had a valid case. Again, the company refused. The trial was held and the jury handed down $18,000 verdict against Mr. Johnson.

Because he couldn't post bond in this amount during appeal to another court, his business was sold at sheriff's sale!

Joe Johnson, however, got the last "laugh." He sued the cut-rate company. Just last month he was awarded $45,000 by the state's supreme court!

Do you want to take chances on a slightly lower first-cost and the possibility of a "bad faith" suit?

Or would you prefer to pay a little more for dependable, quality auto insurance?

Let us talk "auto insurance" with you!

Baltimore Club Releases Bonus Player Swango

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles said goodbye Sunday to John Bruce Swango, bonus youngster from Oklahoma, and — without much apparent regret — to the $36,000 they promised him

Manager Paul Richards said 'we have asked waivers on him for the purpose of giving him his unconditional release'

The 18-year-old righthanded fireballer from Welsh Okla, never pitched a ball in major league competition But he has a guaranteed income of $12 000 for the next three years, that s how the bonus was to be paid

When Richards signed Swango, sight unseen but on the unqualified recommendation of scout Claude Dietrich his fast ball was compared with that of Bob Turley ex Oriole now with the New York Yankees

However he couldn t master the curve ball, attempts to develop a slider gave him arm trouble and his fast one was erratic His teammates were reluctant to step into the batting cage against him in batting practice

'It became obvious' said Richards, 'that Swango was not going to make a pitcher sitting on the bench It was an injustice to the boy to make him waste two years sitting in the dugout It also was an injustice to the ball club'

And the $36 000 'It is just another example of the lengths to which the owners of this ball club are willing to go to give Baltimore a winner' said Richards dict to get even for the day.

The heady Red Sox at Fenway Park got a life from Ted Williams' first grand-slam homer since 1951 and the 12th of his career as Frank Sullivan won his 10th in the 8-3 opener against the Tigers Jim Piersall's leadoff homer in the ninth gave bonus baby Frank Baumann a relief victory in his first major league game. Billy Hoeft was the loser

Brooklyn continued to pour it on its National League rivals, opening up a 13½ game edge on Milwaukee by bombing the St Louis Cardinals with 14 hits, 12 2 Don Newcombe breezed along with a five-hitter, bringing his record to 18 1 Roy Campanella s 200th homer of his career was one of four hits by the Dodger catcher

Giants Hit Braves

The New York Giants, 17½ games back and so discouraged that they sold Sal Maglie to Cleveland broke Milwaukee s six game winning streak 7-3 The Braves also lost the services of first baseman Joe Adcock for the season He suffered a fractured right forearm when one of Jim Hearn's pitches struck him Willie Mays hit home run No 33

Chicago swept two from Philadelphia 7-1 and 6-5 with Warren Hacker pitching a five-hitter and Ernie Banks hitting his 31st homer in the opener and Dee Fody winning the second with a two-run homer Cincinnati won a pair from Pittsburgh 6-4 and 6-5 Gus Bell had four hits including two doubles in the opener and Ted Kluszewski won the second with a bases loaded single in the last of the ninth Kluszewski hit his 35th homer earlier in the game

Klu Big Star As Reds Win 2 From Bucs

CINCINNATI (AP)—If the Cincinnati Redlegs could do as well against other clubs as they do against the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Reds would win over 100 games a season

They blasted the last place Bucs 7 4 and 6-5 yesterday in a doubleheader to sweep a four game series The Reds own 14 victories at the expense of the Pirates while losing five

But, unfortunately for the Reds, the other clubs are not such easy pickings and the Cincinnatians still find themselves in seventh place, one-half game out of sixth

The Reds exploded for 28 hits but 20 men, 16 in the second game expired on the bases

Johnny Temple banged out seven safeties, including a single which drove in the run that tied the nightcap 5-5 in the ninth inning Ted Kluszewski, hitless in the first game, singled to center with the bases loaded to wrap up the victory Earlier in the game Big Klu rapped his 35th homer of the season He and Duke Snider of Brooklyn are tied for the home run leadership

Klu drove in four Reds, second game runs with the bases-empty homer, singles in the first and ninth and a sacrifice fly in the fifth

The Reds and Bucs had three errors apiece in the second game and Cincinnati pitcher Joe Black hurt his own cause in the opener with two fielding errors

Gus Bell accounted for four straight hits, including a pair of doubles in the first game but couldn't get a hit in five trips in the second

Black, gaining his fifth victory against one defeat gave up eight hits including a pair of homers to Dale Long and the first round-tripper of the season to Toby Atwell The righthander, however, made up for one of the runs with a tally-producing single

Hershell Freeman went into both games in the eighth inning He protected Black's lead in the first and allowed one hit in two innings The second game win was credited to the 27 year-old righthander who permitted two hits during his second outing

A crowd of 9 704 saw the twin bill second of the season won by the Reds They have split nine and lost five

Tonight the Reds take on the fourth place Philadelphia Phils in the first of a five game series

Ransom Takes First Place in Akron Tourney

AKRON Ohio (AP) —Henry Ransom of Edge Tex , won the $15,000 Rubber City Open Sunday in a sudden-death playoff with three rivals

Ransom holed a 12-foot putt for a birdie three on the first extra hole The 72-hole contest wound up with four sharpshooters tied at 272 or 16 under par

PGA champion Doug Ford of Kiamesha N Y , Jack Burke, also of Kiamesha, and Jackson Bradley of Houston had the 272s along with Ransom and went into the playoff for the $2 400 first prize

On the last hole of regular play Bradley missed a five-foot putt and took a 68 Burke shot a 64, Ford a 69 and Ransom a 71

On the play-off hole all four got off long drives and followed with excellent approaches Ford's 18-foot putt rimmed the cup, Burke s 15-footer failed to drop, Ransom holed his 12-footer, and Bradley's 10-footer stopped just short

Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio finished in a seventh place tie He won $650 in prize money by carding 68-69-68-70—275

Leo Biagetti of Sandusky, after a bad 74 opening round start, posted a 69-67-69 for a 279 total worth $256

Herman Keiser of Loyal Oak and Joe Guysick of Hartville shot 284s to tie for the Northern Ohio PGA prize

Fred Jones of Youngstown was low Ohio amateur getting a 67 on the final 18 to wind up with a 282 total

Two other Ohioans finishing under the 288 par were George Bayer of Cincinnati, who had a consistent 71 71 72 72—286 and Jack Miller of Canton 69-72-75-71—287

Baseball Heads Begin Summer Meeting Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball's big wigs hold their annual summer meetings in Chicago today with guns trained on the present bonus rule

Leaders of both the American and National Leagues are believed ready to eliminate the ruling which requires a team to carry a bonus player for two years and include him within the 25-player limit

Exactly what would replace the bonus rule is unknown although a great many suggestions have been made

Scheduling matters will also be up for discussion as will be requests made by the players at the All-Star game in Milwaukee

The players have asked that the minimum salary be raised from $6 000 to $7,200 and all restrictions be lifted from playing winter baseball

Also expected to be changed is the spring training ruling that players cannot report before March 1.

White Sox Ace Out for Month After Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) —Dick Donovan, Chicago White Sox ace righthander was resting comfortably today following an appendectomy late Saturday night

Donovan, who has a 13 4 record was rushed to Chicago's Mercy Hospital from Washington when doctors advised an operation following the big righthander's complaint of a stomachache

Dr John B Claridge, team physician, said Donovan had an inflamed acute appendix which was near the rupturing point

I look for Donovan to recuperate in about four weeks but it may be a while longer before he can pitch," he said.

Morse Seeking New Inquiry in Talbott's Case

Senator Claims He Has New Evidence On Secretary for Air

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Two Republicans say they are content to leave Harold E Talbott's status to President Eisenhower, but Sen Morse (D-Ore) has called for a new Senate investigation of the Air Force secretary

Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee and Rep Martin (R-Mass), the House minority leader, expressed confidence Sunday that Eisenhower will make the right decision in Talbott's case In separate radio-TV interviews, both also expressed doubt the matter would have any bearing on the 1956 election

Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday he himself would decide whether Talbott had maintained 'a proper standard of ethics" in work he did from his Pentagon office for Paul B Mulligan & Co, of New York

Talbott has dismissed as "just a rumor" reports from some Republican sources that he has decided to resign, but has said he "will do whatever the President wishes me to do" He said he was giving up his special partnership in the Mulligan company, a management engineering firm.

Morse took the Senate floor Saturday night to report he had new information on Talbott and to suggest that the Senate Investigations subcommittee "determine what validity there is to it"

"Secretary Talbott's record demonstrates quite clearly," Morse said, "that he did not possess the attributes so necessary in a public servant" He said he is concerned with Talbott's "concept of what is right and what is wrong" as a public official.

Hall was asked whether from a political standpoint he considered it esential that the President fire Talbott

He replied that "up to the present time, politics from our side hasn't entered into that question . . . If I went over to the President and tried to inject politics into that situation I think I'd be bounced out of the White House"

Noting that the matter is in the hands of the President, he added "That is where I think it should be"

Martin said he was confident Eisenhower would take whatever action was necessary to keep his administration "on a high plane," and said he would rest on the President's decision

Tony Cornero, Ex-Bootlegger, Gambler, Dies

LAS VEGAS Nev (AP)—Anthony Cornero Stralla, ex-bootlegger and prewar gambling ship "admiral" dropped dead of a heart attack Sunday while shooting craps at a plush casino-hotel

Even in death, Stralla—better known as Tony Cornero—remained a controversial figure Deputy Coroner Bud Bodell said he will investigate what he termed concealment of the gambler's death

Bodell declared Stralla 'was dead before he hit the floor' at the Desert Inn dice table but that the coroner's office was not notified until almost four hours later

Stralla, 54, was in Las Vegas awaiting the opening of his six-million-dollar resort hotel Stardust A witness said the gambler had dropped about $10 000 in the dice game and suffered a heart seizure after engaging in an argument with a croupier

Stralla was said to have made a million dollars before he was 30 as a bootlegger, but in 1929 he was convicted of bootlegging liquor and sentenced to two years in McNeil Island Wash penitentiary

He later gained control of gambling ships that anchored off the southern California coast and shuttled customers to and from water taxis His operations were curbed by Earl Warren, then state attorney general and now chief justice of the United States

Miracles for the Multitude

The Rev. Oral Roberts has been performing miracles on television. Not, it's true, on live television. At least not in this area, if anywhere. As George Burns recently stated in an interview, you can cut out the bad parts on film, and I suppose this applies just as well to the miraculous as to comedians.

JOHN CROSBY

Mr. Roberts operates out of a tent in Tulsa, Okla., which he claims is the largest evangelical tent in the world, housing 10,000 persons, many in search of healing which he does with the laying on of hands. "Many of these people have been given up to die. This is their last resort," he tells the television audience as the people file into the tent. "There is no conflict between medical science and healing by God. We both have the same aims. It's not I who heals, it's God."

-:-

I DON'T KNOW HOW the medical profession feels about this. It certainly makes a bit of a mockery out of their own profession. But then, Roberts tells his audience, the medics didn't do very well by him either. When he was 15 years old, he ran away from home and contracted tuberculosis in both lungs.

"And with blood spurting out of my mouth and my nose, the doctors said there was no hope for him. He's got to die," Roberts tells his audience in a voice that can be heard at least as far as the heavens. "And I turned to Jesus and said 'O Jesus I'm lost save me; and He did."

Having thus put his own medical case on record, Roberts takes off his coat, squats on a chair and routes the afflicted in his direction. The first one the other day was a little girl whose mother explained she had "crippled feet."

Roberts lifted her into his lap, put his hand on her forehead and moaned: "O God heal her little feet." Then to the audience: "I pray the Lord will perform a miracle tonight." The voice rose to a shriek: "Jesus, heal and straighten her right foot. O God, may they be perfectly straight."

THEN, THE VOICE back to normal again, he admonished the little girl to wiggle her feet. She did. I put her back on the ground and she walked away, the cameras getting a perfectly splendid closeup of her feet which seemed perfectly normal. "Oh, isn't that wonderful!" said Roberts.

The next case was a woman who said she had arrived there on a stretcher and who was suffering from something I didn't catch. But at any rate after a bit of the hand-on-the-forehead treatment, she went into a sort of transport and seemed much better. The last case, though, was the miracle of the evening.

It was another little girl, this time a deaf one. "And please, Jesus, now in the name of the Holy Father, let hearing come into these ears tonight," said Roberts. Then to the little girl: "Andrea, say Joe, mother, daddy." The little girl said "Joe, mother, daddy." "Say Jesus. Christ has made me hear tonight."

"Jesus Christ has made me hear tonight," said the little girl.

"How about that," said Roberts to the crowd.

And the little girl's mother, clutched he. child's dress, weeping.

-:-

I SUPPOSE there is an audience for this sort of thing but it definitely isn't me. I'm still old-fashioned enough to think that healing is a job for the doctor in the privacy of his office, not in front of 10,000 people in a tent, to say nothing of a TV audience.

Spear Fisherman Dragged Two Miles By Wounded Shark

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A six-foot shark, maddened by a skindiver's spear, pulled the fisherman two miles out into the Atlantic Sunday.

The fisherman, James Jones, 24, held on grimly until the spear pulled out of the shark's head and then swam back to his boat and resumed spearfishing. He said he didn't want to turn loose and lose his expensive speargun.

The long haul and return took two hours. Jones speared the shark in an underwater hole, thinking it was a "small fish." He held to a 10-foot line during the tow through water about 15 feet deep, managing to get to the top often enough to breathe.

The shark made no attempt to attack him, Jones said.

Report Airliner Downed By Red Fighters Denied

ATHENS, Greece, (AP) — Israel's diplomatic representative here has denied reports that the Israeli airliner shot down in Bulgaria was downed by jet fighters.

Bulgaria previously had admitted that her antiaircraft gunners downed the four-engine Constellation near the Greek border Wednesday. Fifty-eight persons, including 12 Americans, died.

The Israeli diplomat here, Ben Jacov, said the report that jets downed the airliner was "completely unfounded."

Asks More Patrolmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Col. George Mingle, state highway patrol superintendent, says his organization is looking for more men to police the Ohio Turnpike and meet the expansion authorized by the 101st General Assembly. The Legislature raised the patrol's authorized strength from 650 to 700 men.

TV's Coverage Of Big 4 Talks Not Successful

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK, (AP)—Now that we've had time to mull over coverage of the Geneva Big Four meeting by the biggest, most powerful TV networks, we've come up with some conclusions.

To at least one working newsman, it was a mediocre job. Radio did better. In part, this was obviously due to the fact a voice can be instantaneously transmitted from Geneva and a live image cannot. But that was only part of the cause.

Television is trying to achieve journalistic maturity. Sometimes it succeeds brilliantly. More often it fails. Why?

On many a newscast, the news is distorted out of proportion because pictures are available to illustrate an event that's of far less importance than another event for which no pictures are available. In answer to this criticism, one fellow says it's not the intention of TV to offer news coverage competition with newspapers and radio. Its intent, he says, is to provide "background."

All right. The golden opportunity of television at Geneva was to provide "background." One night CBS attempted this with a half-hour program. This was followed by an hour program from NBC.

To this viewer both teams were thoroughly disorganized. They were men running around snatching up a phrase and then dropping it for an old film clip. They needed, above all, a lucid organization of thought that leads an audience to understanding.

The CBS and NBC programs were formless. We got film clips from all over the lot, even including the late Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York reading the comics to kids by radio many years ago during a New York newspaper strike. We got a Communist march in Prague. In various American towns called Geneva we got man-in-the-street interviews—that dead journalistic dog.

Body Found in River Is Identified at Chillicothe

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—Ross County authorities said today a bloated body found in the Paint Creek at Main Street Bridge yesterday has been identified as that of Walter C. Willoughby, 43, who lived nearby.

The sheriff's office said the man's watch was missing and there was a wound in the neck which might have been the result of an accident. The coroner has not returned a verdict.

The body was estimated to have been in the water since Friday when Willoughby, who was single, was released from jail. The sheriff said he had been serving a sentence for being drunk and disorderly.

'Miss Universe' Begins Work on Her First Film

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hillevi Rombin, the college-educated Swedish beauty who was crowned Miss Universe 10 days ago, went back to school today—learning to be a movie actress.

The 5-foot-7 blonde from Uppsala signed a contract with Universal-International Studios starting at $250 a week. She's guaranteed work for six months. If she shows promise, U-I said, she has a contract for seven years with options.

Miss Universe will appear as a teen-ager in "The Benny Goodman Story."

Youth Sees First Horse

ONEONTA, N. Y. (AP) — A New York City youth working upstate this summer asked his farmer boss what the animals were in a field.

Horses, he was told.

"You can't kid me," the boy snorted. "Horses come with wagons."

VAUGHAN PRINTING HOUSE

Mitch Miller Thinks Music Better on Radio

NEW YORK, (AP)—Mitch Miller prefers radio.

Miller is a bearded, literate, articulate, oboe-playing selector of hit records and connoisseur of fine art who recently was tendered the stewardship of CBS radio's Music Hall Sunday evenings. Judging by audience reaction, he is rendering a fine stewardship.

Sit in a quiet restaurant with Miller and he says things like "As soon as the movies got in trouble they began going adult. The same thing had happened to radio since television got it in trouble. Radio — the best of it — has gone to the solid adult audience because there was nowhere else for it to go."

What does he mean by "adult"?

Take music, says Miller. Do you enjoy music more on the radio or television?

Generally on the radio, you say, but you've never figured out exactly why. Is it because the visual image of an orchestra on the screen distracts?

Nonsense, says Miller, the visual image of an orchestra in Carnegie Hall doesn't distract when you attend a concert.

"Music," he says, "is sound. On television today, because of the money involved, nobody pays much attention to sound when an orchestra goes before the cameras. In preparing for the orchestra's appearance, they're concerned about lighting and cameras. When lights and cameras are right they yell, 'that's all.' They don't want to have to pay for all those high-priced technicians standing around while an orchestra rehearses."

But for a half-hour radio show, says Miller, a good orchestra will prepare with a three to four-hour rehearsal.

Auto Workers, Trailmobile Co. Continue Talks

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — CIO United Automobile Workers and Trailmobile Inc. officials were in their 21st consecutive hour of negotiations at 6 a. m. (EST) this morning. The contract talks were six hours past the midnight strike deadline, and the auto workers were picketing the Trailmobile plant.

Federal Mediator Samuel E. Spencer is conducting the negotiations which will affect 1,700 workers.

Neither Spencer nor Lloyd Senglaub, company industrial relations manager, were available for comment this morning, but James Connors, local union president, said both sides were "still trying" and that several times issues were "near settlement" but fluctuated.

Connors said the picketing affected about 50 workers on the third shift. He said he did not know how many pickets were taking part. The workers reported for duty at 11 p. m. last night and walked off at midnight.

Senglaub said last night that the company offered a new contract containing "economic benefits higher than any settlement we know of made in this vicinity." The provisions were not listed in detail.

The employes average $1.60 to $2.20 an hour, company sources said.

The union says its proposals, which include a pension plan and layoff pay system, would cost the company about 31 cents an hour for each employe.

Intersection Is Greased By 50 Pounds of Lard

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Motorists had a bit of January-in-July weather Sunday, but it was lard, not love.

A 50-pound can of lard fell from a passing truck at one of the city's busiest intersections.

Ninety-degree heat did the rest, and the slipping and sliding began.

Firemen hosed off as much as they could. The remainder was sanded down.

This week Buick soars past the 600,000 mark!

Biggest-selling Buick of all time permits us to make the biggest trade-in deals ever possible!

HERE it is, just past July, and what do you think has happened?

Buick popularity has broken every past full-year record!

That's the gospel truth. And Buick, of course, has had many great years before.

At the beginning of this week, Buick production passed 600,000 cars for the 1955 model year.

That is over 155,000 more automobiles than the full model year of 1954—when we captured third place in total national sales.

It is more than 11,000 higher than the full model year of 1950—when the automobile industry had its greatest year, and Buick established an all-time record that stood unchallenged until now.

It is almost a quarter of a million more automobiles than the full model year of 1941—which was the greatest prewar record Buick ever reached.

In other words, there has never been anything like 1955 in Buick history—when today Buick is building over three cars every minute to meet the public demand.

Doesn't this tell you something important? Doesn't this soaring Buick success mean that you owe it to yourself to see and sample the car that's breaking every record in the Buick book?

Doesn't it mean that you ought to try Buick's mighty V8 power—Buick's great room and comfort—Buick's cruiser-steady ride and roadability—Buick's superb visibility and precision handling ease?

And doesn't it mean you certainly ought to try Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—the world's only transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern plane's propeller—and the most spectacular performance advance of the year?

Come in and see us—this week, at the latest—and learn for yourself why today's Buick is the biggest-selling Buick of all time—and how big a trade-in deal we can offer you with this tremendous volume to back us up.

*Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.

Buick builds cars in every price range, including the very lowest. And typical of Buick value in every price class is this buy:

Warners Plan Feature-Length Film of TV's 'Our Miss Brooks'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Latest to join the Warners TV sweepstakes is Eve Arden and "Our Miss Brooks."

There was a time when the Burbank lot wouldn't touch TV with a 10-foot antenna. Perhaps it was because the bosses got stung on a film with the early-day Mr. TV, Milton Berle. It was called "Always Leave Them Laughing," but it didn't.

At any rate, Warners has now embraced TV like a long-lost brother. The studio is making hour-long dramas for ABC, based on the characters and locales of "Casablanca," "King's Row" and "Cheyenne." It is also sponsoring theatrical movies with such home-screen stars.

Eve Arden has now brought her chummy group of over-age high school students and slightly wacky faculty members to the Warner lot. They're making a feature-length "Our Miss Brooks" with the same cast, writer and director. Quite a difference from Miss Arden's last engagement at the studio.

Although she complains mildly about the early morning hours of picture making, Eve is basking in the luxury of time. Her TV show is filmed before an audience in approximately 55 minutes. She has a 30-day schedule on the feature.

"We're using the same regulars from the TV show," she said, "plus a few outsiders to round out the cast. The plot? Yes, it has to be somewhat more substantial than the TV show.

She'll have her usual longstanding romance with Mr. Boynton, but she declined to say whether it would end in matrimony. However, she denied a report that she would wed him on TV.

"Why do that?" she reasoned. "Then you'd end up with another Mr. and Mrs. show."

'Sheba' To Be Presented At Playhouse-on-Green

"Come Back, Little Sheba" starring Joel Thomas, Margaret Owens, Yvonne Clifford, and Charles Fatone will open Tuesday at the Playhouse-on-the-Green for a six-night engagement. The playhouse is located at Radio Station WRFD near Worthington.

The comedy-drama tells of a married couple who manage to keep living together only out of desperation. The husband is an ex-alcoholic who constantly struggles to control his frustration at being an insignificant chiropractor instead of the brilliant physician he had hoped to be. He is constantly revolted by his wife's slovenliness and inanity.

The play written by William Inge, was an outstanding Broadway play. This is the first time that it has been presented on the stage in the Columbus area.

Turtle Prefers Raw Steak and Chicken

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Nieman and son, Jan, have a mixed-up turtle named Putzi.

The Nieman's got their son the pet as an Easter present when Jan was a toddler. Now Putzi is 17 years old. Jan is 20.

The musk turtle won't play by turtle rules. Putzi, obviously an extrovert, follows the Niemans around their home looking for a back scratching. He sways contentedly when he gets it. When he is alarmed, he sticks his head out instead of pulling it in.

Putzi, who weighs two pounds and measures about six by seven inches, eats raw steak, fried chicken and cheddar cheese — but no turtle food.

Be noble minded; our own heart and not other men's opinion of us forms our true honor. —Friedrich Schiller

U.S. Business Impresses French Youth

Student on 8-Week Visit To Marion Also Notes Friendliness Here

By EVELYN SHARP

Impressed by the 'powerful activity of business" on one side and the friendly informality of Americans on the other, Jacques Viriot is thoroughly enjoying an eight-week visit in the homes of eight Marion families.

This young French college student, who hopes to make a career in the international trade field, arrived in Marion a little over a week ago. His trip to the United States was made possible by the International Research Fund and his stay in Marion is being sponsored by members of the Rotary Club.

JACQUES WAS one of a group of some 80 European students who met in Amsterdam and then were flown to the United States for their two-months visits in typical American homes in cities of various sizes.

Before boarding a bus for Marion, Jacques had the opportunity to tour New York City and get the American "big city' feel. Perhaps his most lasting impression of New York came as he was standing atop the Empire State Building, the tallest building in the world, and watching the U.S.S. United States, the largest ship in the world, as it was landing in the harbor.

He was disappointed in not being able to see the countryside between New York and Marion, since he was scheduled for a night bus. However it was dawn when the bus arrived in Pittsburgh, and Jacques was able to see the tall smoke-stacks and other evidences of that city's industrial activity.

His first Marion "home" after arriving here was at the Henry Mickley residence, where he stayed until last Tuesday. At that time, he "moved" to the Carl Knurk home.

During his stay with the Knurks, Jacques accompanied the family to Cleveland for a day. He enjoyed seeing the lake and watching an electrical storm approaching.

HE FEELS HE is "very fortunate to be here since many would like to come." Jacques, before being chosen for the American visit, first was screened through both a written and an oral competitive exam administered by the Paris Chamber of Commerce and the American Embassy.

Jacques has completed the equivalent of high school and when he returns to France this fall will be in his third and final year of an international trade course in the Paris Business College.

After that, he must serve for 18 months in the French Army, after which he hopes to become affiliated with the import and export department of a business or industry.

This is not Jacques' first trip abroad. Last summer he trained in the commercial attache's office in Teheran, Iran, and had the chance of traveling throughout the Near East and southern Europe. The summer before he took a special vacation course at Cambridge.

Representing his college the Paris Business College this young traveler attended meetings of the International Association of Business Students in Helsinki in 1954 and at Nurnberg in 1953.

He takes this full schedule of activities in his stride. He explains he wants to "profit by the time I am a student."

THE FEW SPARE hours that Jacques has during his Marion visit, he uses to keep a written report of his activities and to write to his friends and family in France.

His parents reside in Remiremont, a small town in the east of France, where his father is a doctor. A 16-year-old brother lives at home, and another brother is an officer in the French Army serving now in North Africa.

He admitted he was a little dubious about his English vocabulary, but has found that his hosts are very easy to talk with. The one thing that does have him stumped, though, is the American slang. He often has to ask for an interpretation.

He feels that the Rotary Club is "doing a wonderful thing' in its international relations work, and hopes he will be a credit to their sponsoring him on the Marion visit.

On Tuesday, Jacques will move to the James Frew home, and in subsequent weeks will visit at the homes of Wayne Kuhn, C. Robert Martin, Robert Kibbey, Odell Thompson and Robert A. Bagley.

By the time Jacques leaves Marion to return to Paris in September it will probably be a toss-up as to who benefited more from his visit, he or his hosts and other Marionites.

TRYING OUT HIS ENGLISH reading ability on a recent issue of The Marion Star is Jacques Viriot, (right) who is visiting Marion for several weeks. Standing by for assistance, if necessary, is young Carl Knurk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Knurk of 714 Mt. Vernon Ave., in whose home Jacques is currently visiting.

Reject Contract Offer

CLEVELAND (AP) — A new contract offer including a 3.25 per cent general wage increase was rejected yesterday by employes of East Ohio Gas Co. here and in Youngstown, Akron and Canton. The Natural Gas Workers Union (Independent) voted the offer down and gave the union committee authority to call a strike. President John D. Nagle said. The union's present contract with the utility expires at midnight tonight but Nagle said no immediate walkout is planned.

4 Weekend Runs Made by Firemen

A series of four fire calls were answered Saturday and Sunday by Marion firemen.

At 11:17 p.m. Sunday, firemen were called to the home of Sara Brooks at 216 Senate St. where it is believed a roomer smoking in bed set fire to bedding and clothes, which caused an estimated $100 loss. This call was answered by firemen from the Central and W. Center St. stations.

Overloaded circuits at the Wayne Craft home at 261 E. Mark St. were blamed for blowing out fuses there at 10:04 p.m. Sunday. A small loss resulted to wiring, and the fuses, Chief O. A. Sifritt reported. This run was made by firemen from the Central and Mark St. stations.

No loss resulted when a journal box on Big Four car caught fire on a siding near the Marion Plant Life Co. on W. Center St. at 11:15 a.m. Sunday. Firemen from the W. Center St. station were called to extinguish this blaze.

Children playing with matches were blamed for setting waste paper and rubbish on fire in the basement of the Carroll's Jewelry Store at 12:37 p.m. Saturday. There was no loss. Firemen from the Central station were called.

Every prisoner who has escaped from the Concord, Mass. Reformatory since it was built in 1878 has been recaptured.

EAGLE SEEN NEAR BUCYRUS

BUCYRUS — A bald eagle was seen over the weekend on a farm near Bucyrus. The bird was sighted by Moody L. Schiefer on his farm near Brokensword, northwest of here. He contacted Crawford County Sheriff Elwood Jacobs. Later the eagle, a matured bird, was seen perched in a tree by the sheriff and a reporter.

OSU Experts Report on Study

Better Care for Delinquents Suggested

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An Ohio State University group took a long hard look at how the state is caring for its bad boys and girls It decided there's much room for improvement.

The group, headed by Dr H Ashley Weeks, worked 11 months on the project and submitted a 500-page report to Dr John D Porterfield, director of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction

Funds from the U S Children's Bureau paid for the long study that included questioning state employes who work with delinquent youth the inmates themselves and visits to out of state institutions The study cost $34 000

Not an Investigation

It was not meant as an investigation The report said "To the contrary, we have sought to be helpful and supportive'

It was a survey of what is being done for and what could be done for immature, frustrated hostile insecure and badly frightened boys and girls"

Every year more than 1 000 of them become delinquent enough to be sent to the Boys Industrial School at Lancaster, whose superintendent is Col T L Fult. the Girls Industrial School at Delaware, headed by Mrs Evelyn R Ethel, or the Juvenile Diogostic Center in Columbus, whose superintendent is Dr Roger M Gove They are sent there by county courts

What is the state doing to make them more desirable citizens? the report has this to say about the Girls Industrial School' "It appears to be more concerned about custody and punishment than it is about helping the girls in a fundamental way to learn social values more in conformity with those of the outside community The main emphasis is on conformity to the long list of institutional rules and regulations

. . There is a lack of knowledge of the girls' problems There are inadequate numbers of professional personnel . . There are no goals set for the girls toward which they can progress . . . Girls who enter the institution in a hopeful frame of mind almost immediately lose their optimism fewer feel the school is doing them any good as the length of their stay increases"

Of the program at the Boys Industrial School the survey crew found much of the classroom work is "sterile and non-productive"

The institution seems more concerned about keeping boys in line than in helping them to live more wholesome lives and that there is 'altogether too much punishment and not enough reward" for the inmates

The researchers also noted that while the staff may want to help the boys, it is handicapped by too many inmates (950) not enough professional workers and too slight a knowledge of the boys' problems and needs

Not Helping Children

Large numbers of boys at Lancaster and girls at Delaware said they didn't think being in the institutions was helping them One boy wrote

'I wasn t very bad when I came here, but I ll be worse when I get out if I stay here much longer'

While BIS had a long way to go the survey team believes the staff has the desire to do a good job of rehabilitating boys and will if given tools

So pleased were the probers with the Juvenile Diagnostic Center here that they recommended building and staffing a new center About 600 children are served by the center yearly coming from rural areas An intensive study is made of their physical, mental, emotional and social lives Inmates have few restraints placed on them

The report makes no specific recommendations but sets fourth a number of broad goals

It would cut down the populations at BIS and GIS by providing specialized treatment for many of the boys and girls now there

The institution must exist for the child and not the child for the institution," says the report 'We must always be governed by what is good for the child, what is of most benefit to him regardless of the difficulty it may create in operating the facility"

And the survey team recommended 'more treatment and less punishment" for delinquent youth Instead of being in institutions, some youths should be in schools for the mentally retarded some should be in outdoor camps, some would have a better chance of making good by staying in civilian life under supervision

'Institutions in the future will be as much concerned over the emotional life of the children as they are today in providing food shelter and clothing" says the report 'The emphasis will not be on 'good behavior' or 'bad behavior' but rather on the growing maturity of the child"

When this is done, says the report, the institutions won't be "social disposal plants" for the castoffs of society but will help the child to start anew to live—perhaps for the first time"

THE NEW LOOK. The Horseshoe, or Canadian section of Niagara Falls, under the knife of face-lifters for the past year, begins to show its new appearance in this air view At left is Terrapin Point on Goat Island, which separates the American and Canadian Fall The point was rebuilt and the channel deepened to spread out the flow of water A similar project is under way on the Canadian flank, at right

Kenton Resident Held On Charges in Wyandot

UPPER SANDUSKY — Sheriff Dean McAllister was preparing charges Saturday of assault with intent to kill against Charles M Trent Jr , 23, of Kenton

Trent had made repeated threats, the sheriff said, before he approached McAllister on the street here at 11 p m Friday with a knife in his hand

The Kenton man had recently been released on bond from justice of the peace court here on a grand larceny charge the sheriff disarmed and handcuffed Trent after a brief but violent struggle Trent is being held in the Wyandot County jail

Sheep Growers To Get Ballots This Week on Wool Agreement

Ballots go in the mail this week to all sheep growers in the county on the question of a marketing agreement under which one cent per pound of wool would be deducted from each grower's 1955 incentive payment

If the agreement is favored the fund collected will be used for advertising and sales promotion programs to be conducted by the American Sheep Producers Council Inc Deductions for the same purpose in an amount still to be determined but not exceeding one cent per pound also will be made from wool payments for the 1956, 1957 and 1958 clips

Deductions for 1955 lambs and yearlings moved to slaughter with the wool on will be made at a rate of five cents per hundred weight

The referendum is being conducted in each county by the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee The office in Marion is located at 194 S State St

Deadline for voting is Aug 19 Office manager Frank Montgomery said that records in his office showed there were 683 sheep men in the county Ballots may be obtained at the ASC office

The program is authorized by the National Wool Act of 1954 which provides for incentive payments to wool growers to encourage increased domestic production of wool

For passage, the referendum will require favorable votes from owners of two-thirds of the sheep represented in the balloting

Fugitive Runs Over, Kills Wife In Escape Try

CINCINNATI (AP)—Lee Murphy, 40, who ran over his wife while fleeing from the scene of an alleged gasoline theft, was in custody today awaiting a charge of murder in her death

Investigator Carl G Meyer said Murphy would be charged with murdering his wife Willoughby, 39-year-old mother of 12

On surrendering to Meyer Saturday, 10 hours after the hit-skip incident, Murphy said, "I was crazy drunk I didn't know I ran over anything"

Police said Mrs Murphy was killed in nearby Harrison when her husband fled from a concrete mixing plant from which the couple had attempted to steal gasoline Frank Roudebush, co owner of the plant said he was holding the pair at gunpoint when the man suddenly started the car

Roudebush said he fired at the man and shoved the woman into the path of the automobile

"He ran over her and kept on going' Roudebush said

Zooming Profits in Steel Hardly Cause Ripple in Stock Exchange

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Zooming profits in the steel industry plus assurances that output should continue at a rapid pace the rest of the year have made scarcely a ripple in the stock market.

Healthy, if less spectacular, earnings reports by the oil industry also failed to move traders.

Wall Street appears to have expected the results and to have anticipated them by bidding up stock prices earlier in the year. The Street shows much more interest in rumors about possible stock splits—or in the effect of man-made earth satellites on aircraft-atomic stocks.

Steel earnings have been impressive. Several of them have been all-time record highs. They may explain how the union was able to get a sizable wage boost with scarcely more than a token strike.

Reports that order backlogs are high and output is continuing at or near capacity rates may explain how the companies were able to raise the price of steel without running into resistance from the customers, who seem mostly interested in pressing for quicker deliveries.

The first 34 iron and steel companies to report their net profit after taxes for the first half of the year show an average gain over a year ago of 73 per cent.

Combined, the 34 companies had profits of $282,535,797 in that recession period, but this year raised the total to $487,754,959.

The biggest of them, U. S. Steel, shows a 90 per cent gain in profits; Bethlehem, the second, 41 per cent; and Republic, 66 per cent.

Pittsburgh Steel's profits went from $318,000 in the first half of 1954 to $2,574,000 in the first half of this year.

Where There's a Will

If Americans knew what Russians, Englishmen and Frenchmen believed was accomplished at Geneva, they would tone down their optimism.

Tail-wagging exuberance about the Big-Four Conference must be credited solely to this country's bad habit of generalizing on its own moods and manners.

With due credit to President Eisenhower's great charm, he is not likely to get any more diplomatic mileage out of it than Franklin Roosevelt was able to get out of his.

The sore points that have been keeping the world in pain are not going to be healed by charm.

When that has been acknowledged—as the President, himself, did acknowledge it in his Monday night report on Geneva — realistic appraisal becomes possible.

Nothing was expected to come out of Geneva but a meeting of minds. The one great hope was that something had happened to the obstructionism of the Kremlin.

Geneva provided evidence of a new Kremlin attitude of conciliation.

The evidence is not conclusive.

But if it holds up through the summer and through the October conference of foreign ministers, there will be reason for optimism.

There are no insuperable obstacles to peace. Wherever there is a will to live peaceably, there is a way.

The net importance of Geneva is evidence that the men in the Kremlin have ceased to want to spread bad will and ill feeling. They now are on their good behavior, instead of their bad behavior.

It's the Humidity

The practice of reporting humidity along with summertime temperature readings is relatively new. Not so many years ago, it was enough to say the air was muggy and let it go at that.

But science marches on, and those who keep pace must know all sorts of things that are relatively new. In weather, they must know about cold fronts, air masses from Canada, Bermuda highs — and humidity.

There is a special reason for knowing about humidity, and sooner or later the truth must be faced. It is perspiration — sweat, if you remember when it was the sweat of a man's brow that he earned his bread by.

The higher the humidity, the more perspiration and the less chance for it to evaporate. When perspiration doesn't evaporate, there is no cooling effect — and when there is no cooling effect there is the chronic discomfort that accounts for what happens to people transplanted suddenly into the tropics.

They go to pieces. The humidity undermines their morale, and they become empty shells. If the humidity stays above 50 much longer, there will be more empty shells scattered about this part of the country than there is the day after rabbit season opens.

Shooting To Kill

The incident of the Israeli airliner shot down without warning when it was flown a few miles inside the borders of Communist Bulgaria points up the danger of putting firearms into irresponsible hands with orders to shoot to kill.

The 57 passengers of the commercial plane were no threat to Bulgaria. The crew and the plane were no threat to Bulgaria. But an irresponsible antiaircraft gun crew with orders to shoot to kill threatened not only to Bulgaria but to everybody who might stray into the range of the crew's antiaircraft fire.

This is the ultimate tragedy of the armed truce in which a large part of the world has been living — that the power to kill and destroy has been bestowed on so many millions of irresponsible people. Until both their guns and their belligerence have been laid aside, no one can be safe.

There is no power in government that can control their impulsive acts. If actual war broke out, they would run amuck.

$64,000 Questions

The "$64,000 Question," television's summertime extravaganza with a built-in suspense gimmick, might better be called the "$64,000 Questions," with emphasis on the plural.

The contestant, who tries to parlay his knowledge of almost any given subject with a sprinkling of luck to run his winnings into astronomical figures, finds the road comparatively smooth in the early stages.

While the questions get progressively harder, they come only one at a time, until he reaches the $16 000 bracket. At that point, the game ceases to be polite fun and turns into a catch-as-catch scramble with every brain cell on its own.

Last Tuesday night, the $16,000 stinger confronting the Italian-born opera authority involved not simply ONE question but FOUR.

He survived it, but had he stumbled on one of the four, the wailing and gnashing of teeth might well have been unbearable.

If the questions continue to pyramid with the money, there might not be enough time on a half-hour program to recite all the answers to a $64,000 pitch, if, indeed, the contestant has the mental agility to answer them at all.

Get your ears tuned for a cry of "Foul!" one of these otherwise pleasant summer evenings.

Showdown Deferred

Boom in Canada Eases Political Issue

CALGARY, Alberta

In a previous article I described the strange origins and philosophy of the Social Credit movement which, under its noted leader, the Rev. William Aberhart, took over the government of Alberta in 1935. Like its predeccessor, the United Farmers of Alberta, it was from the beginning a class party.

Aberhart found it impossible to put his theories into effect because of constitutional objections. Indeed, before he died in 1943 he must have realized that the veto of his schemes by the Supreme Court and the national Parliament of Canada was a stroke of good fortune so far as the survival of his party was concerned. For it left him nothing as a guide to his government but the normal, orthodox principles of any government in a capitalistic society.

His successor, Ernest C Manning, has attempted no revival of the old Social Credit ideas except an occasional reference in his annual budget speeches. His obvious conservatism, together with the threat during the war of a real socialist movement under the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, brought to his aid many business interests and wealthy farmers who had opposed Aberhart.

Meanwhile, a great oil boom struck Alberta in the years immediately following the war. This oil was found largely under the Crown lands which had been ceded to the provinces in 1930.

The royalties and the money derived from leases to the oil companies have been a rich windfall to the Manning government. In the past eight years this revenue has amounted to something like 400 million dollars.

This has made it unnecessary to levy sales taxes and has made it possible to reduce the provincial debt to a very small remainder. Nothing could be more advantageous to a party in power. Under these conditions Social Credit captured 51 of the 61 seats in the provincial legislature in 1952. The largest group in the opposition was made up of four Liberals.

An editor in Saskatchewan made the comment to me when I was in Regina that there are always three phases in the life of a party in power — first there is devotion, then arrogance, and finally corruption.

"Certainly the Manning party attained the second of these phases after the 1952 election. But the leader of the Liberals, J. Harper Prowse, decided that the third phase had been reached and began, with the powerful aid of the conservative Calgary Herald, to prove his case.

Improprieties of many sorts were charged against members of the government and Social Credit members of the legislature. Manning, in sheer self-defense, was compelled to call an election, which was held in June.

I was interested to note as I read the newspaper accounts of the bitter campaign that there was hardly a mention of the ideas on the basis of which the Social Credit movement began. Nor was there much to say about efficiency in government. The sole issue was corruption and impropriety, with Manning and his party on the defensive.

The result was a reduction in the number of seats held by Social Credit to 37, with the Liberals holding 15. Three of Manning's ministers were defeated, and he has decided not to attempt to win new seats for them in by-elections.

With Prowse as leader, the 15 Liberals will be a formidable opposition, and if conditions charged in the recent campaign are really prevalent, it will not be surprising to see another election before many months have passed.

This political battle over corruption, however, will not affect the booming prosperity of the province, for the Liberals are just as anxious to bring in new business as is Social Credit. Nor are the farmers worried, because they "never had it so good."

Only in some half - forgotten pamphlets can references to the easy - money theories of Berhart be found. When nature opens her lavish purse, the theories of mere men fade into shadows.

Out of the Bucket

By TRUMAN TWILL

Last night, in the absence of the lady who usually washes the dishes, I was filling in and came across two lunch buckets.

These had to be emptied of their wads of waxed paper, peach skins, uneaten cookies and empty thermos bottles, then laved out and set aside with their lids wide open to give them an airing before they were snapped shut on tomorrow's lunch.

I have a warm place right here for the countless women who have packed countless lunches in countless lunch boxes for their breadwinners. My mouth goes dry at the thought of so much peanut butter, baloney and sliced cheese.

By closing my eyes and turning the mental clock backward, I can retaste the boiled eggs whose shells had to be removed with dirty fingers, the cookies that had turned soggy and the little jars of insipid custard that were standard items—because custard was nourishing.

There was a wilted pickle in an odorized wrapping, a slab of pie, a bottle of apple sauce, a little salt shaker, a wedge of cheese and radishes and tomatoes in season.

My first lunch bucket was made of wicker, with a lid that was fitted into the top and held in place with raffia loops. It wasn't really a lunch bucket at all but a sort of modified peck basket, just the right size for holding an adequate lunch and a little jug of water.

Thermos bottles were around, but they were not yet practicable for ordinary use; they were too fragile. It was a long way between water fountains, if any. And on many jobs there was no potable water to be had anyway, hence the jug.

As all lunch carriers do at one time or another, I found fault with the lunch packer when there was a spoon missing, the pickle juice had trickled on to the slice of cake, or a fly had been trapped in the water jug.

And the packer, in turn, sometimes cursed out the carrier when he brought home a bucketful of watermelon seeds, an uneaten sandwich, or lost the cork out of the jug.

This is the way it still is, except for such minor alterations as durable thermos bottles, better ways to wrap pickles to make them leakproof, and streamlined lunch buckets.

Sandwiches are still dry, and cookies still soggy. The carriers still bring home apple cores, peach skins, watermelon seeds and tag ends of bread crust.

They still choke up sometimes on the little goodies that have been tucked in for their special delight and bring them home, too. They continue to be string savers and paper savers.

It never has occurred to anyone to erect a statue to the patient women who pack the nation's lunch buckets, or the patient men who choke it down. There should be such a statue—with a cork in the top and a pile of lunchbox litter at the bottom.

White Collar Honesty

By John F. Sembower

CHICAGO

Applicants for jobs involving the handling of money soon may be asked by the boss to take a test designed to tell more about their honesty in the face of temptation than they themselves know.

John E. Reid, a founder of the national group of lie detector experts, the American Academy of Polygraph Examiners, and co-author with Northwestern University criminology professor, Fred E. Inbau of the Standard Manual on Lie Detectors, developed the test. It is the latest move to curb what is described as a mounting wave of "white-collar crime."

On the basis of a trial run with 2,850 job applicants in 48 Chicago-area firms, double-checked with lie detector results and actual performance on the job, Reid believes that his check on "honesty patterns" will cut losses to banks and businesses through embezzlement which accountants and bonding companies now estimate at more than 500 million dollars a year.

THE EXACT LIST of 116 questions and answers in the test is top secret with Reid and his associates. However, they fall roughly into categories having to do with methods of earning outside income, attitudes toward horse-race betting and other gambling, views about stealing, attitudes toward finance company borrowing and personal finances.

Mixed with the significant questions are 42 "red herring" queries that elicit only routine information and set up the applicant for the real hookers. Other questions have quite obvious answers: "Did you steal any goods or merchandise between the ages of 10 and 17?" "If you were to become rich, would you bet on the horses?"

Reid explained that the questionnaire is pitched so that an applicant cannot "throw" the examination even if he wants to; the key questions give an "involuntary" indication.

If the job applicants "flunks" the "honesty evaluator," he has the option of taking a lie test. He also agrees to take a lie test whenever asked to do so if he gets the job, and that in itself is a deterrent to defalcations, Reid declared.

IN ANSWER the objection that the examination may "invade the privacy of job seekers" or otherwise take advantage - of them through a prejudgment of their tendencies with an admitted margin of error, Reid says that the worst "favor" that anyone can have to a "susceptible person" is to put him in a job where he may fall into stealing almost without realizing it.

Reid does not advocate the use of the lie detector itself on all job applicants, because of the expense and also because it makes some job hunters "nervous." His test takes an average of only 30 minutes.

Development of the test first was undertaken eight years ago when the Chicago Crime Commission turned from its former preoccupation of trying to expose the underworld here an announced that embezzlements had become a major menace to the nation.

Virgil M. Peterson, director of the commission, said that the problem was all the more baffling because embezzlers defy most of the set rules for detecting other criminals. Loyalty and conscientiousness are their chief characteristics, he explained.

FINDING THAT about the only "commo denominator" of embezzlers is an inclination not to take vacations for fear their records may be inspected in their absence, the commission recommended that fiduciary employes be forced to take one or even two vacations a year during which they might be checked into.

Reid and his associates tackled the problem of screening out untrustworthy job applicants by experimenting with more than 10,000 questions. Their job was complicated by the "subtle emotions" which have been found to underlie many of the leading embezzlers in recent years.

Many of them are not "high livers" at all, they point out. That type of embezzler seems almost obsolete. Instead we now have the "earnest" sort that lives conservatively, often seeming to be "just making ends meet." Others have distorted views of the equities involved, fancying themselves as "modern Robin Hoods" who try to help others, including one bank cashier who ran up a $500,000 deficit because he "did not have the heart" to turn back the bad checks of patrons he liked.

THE QUESTIONNAIRE also is aimed at weeding out those who "drift into embezzlement" because of lax business procedures in their offices. The journal of accountancy reported that "various surveys indicate that at least 40 per cent of employes who handle cash will eventually find some of it clinging to their work clothes on reaching home in the evenings, while about two-third of employes who handle merchandise have difficulty remembering who holds title to it."

The honesty questionnaire is intended only for prospective employes, Reid warns. For those already on the job, the lie detector and other more elaborate methods are indicated.

Along with the test, businesses also are being cautioned to be more thorough in checking references, taking fingerprints and sending them in for indentification, and making personal investigations.

Ike Gets Cooperation

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Honeymoon is an overworked word. But the relationship between President Eisenhower and the Democratic-run Congress has been a political honeymoon—this year, at least.

There is no certainty the honeymoon will end next year either although 1956 is a presidential election year and the Democrats will need issues to win. They've created very few in 1955.

Congress, ending its session this week, has given the President much of the legislation he urged, and with a minimum of fuss and fury. There were two things unusual about that:

1. They had been expected—after winning control of Congress in the 1954 elections—to go out savagely after the Republicans who had been berating and denouncing them for years.

2. When they took over in January they were expected to start building toward the 1958 election campaign by creating issues.

Instead of abusing and trying to hamstring the Republicans, the Democrats generally cooperated with Eisenhower. On foreign affairs they gave him more support than his own Republicans. And they went along with him, more or less, on most of his domestic programs.

As for issues, the Democrats found or tried to create only a few. Two examples of where they went after the administration were the Dixon-Yates power deal and the financial affairs of Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott.

Since the Democrats acted contrary to expectations in 1955, they may continue their honeymoon with Eisenhower through 1956 when they still will be in control of Congress.

Why the political good will this year and the possibility of more of the same in 1956?

For one thing, Eisenhower's personal popularity. It makes opposition politicians wary about teeing off on him on minor issues. And Eisenhower has been astute enough not to give them many major ones.

For another, in foreign affairs Eisenhower was really following the program laid down by his Democratic predecessor President Truman. Since that was a Democratic program the Democrats are committed to support it.

On domestic policies Eisenhower followed a moderate course. But so did the Democrats. The times called for moderation at home, not for extreme experiments in economics or social welfare.

Eisenhower took over a prosperous country in 1953. It has become even more prosperous under his leadership. People have jobs. There are no demands for radical remedies.

The moderation of Eisenhower and the Democrats was simply a reflection of the moderate mood of the country.

Eisenhower looks like a good bet to run again, and win overwhelmingly. Perhaps the Democrats are reconciled to that and hope only that in 1956 the voters will let them keep control of Congress.

Beards and Bathing Pools

A State Labor Board has ruled that a swimming-pool owner who fired a lifeguard for growing a beard must put him back on the job. This can do a lot for beards but it can kill public bathing. The dismissal "infringed upon a man's right to present such an appearance as he wishes as long as it doesn't affect his duties adversely or injure the employer and his business," says the Labor Board referee.

We still insist a beard renders a lifeguard ineffective, especially among women and children. If we were a bathing-pool owner, hired a fellow who looked like Adonis and had him show up the next morning with a VanDyke we would give him the heave-ho. And if a Labor Board told us to take him back, beard and all, we would appeal, using a battery of bearded lawyers and insisting upon a hearing before a judge who had just found a hair in his porridge.

-:-

IF A LIFEGUARD who shows up looking like a bit player in Henry the Eighth must be kept on the job, is it also unfair to fire the following:

1. The baby-sitter with two-heads?
2. The perfumery demonstrator who brings along a bag of garlic?
3. A female private secretary who has her cheekbones raised and her front teeth pulled after taking the job?
4. The department store Santa Claus who appears wearing only a walrus mustache and Bermuda shorts?
5. The visiting nurse who decides to shave her head and make all visits in a fright-wig.

To us a lifeguard with a VanDyke clearly establishes himself as not the type, except in a musical of Robinson Crusoe and must meet the question "What's your excuse?" with a better answer than "I just like VanDykes." The decision astounds and worries us. Many a man of distinction has worn whiskers. But name one who looked good on a diving board!

A WOMAN, PAULA AIELLO, who sued a race track to get back her losings, has had her case thrown out, the court explaining that a mutuel window is not something to be tried on for size and that mutuel tickets cannot be taken home on approval.

Billy was a kid punk who bumped off 22 men, most of them out of sheer viciousness, yet in these days when so much baloney is sliced over causes of crime, the killer was portrayed as a cutie-pie youth who loved sunsets, raved about moonlight nights and got poetic over fresh air! . . . Every person representing the law or community decency was portrayed as helping to keep him free!

5,000 Youths Express Faith In Christianity

CLEVELAND (AP) — More than 5,000 Sunday School Convention delegates were advised last night to make plain that Christianity "does have an answer to man's deepest needs and fulfills his highest hopes."

Dr. Gerald E. Knoff of New York, executive secretary of the National Council of Churches' Division of Christian Education, told the final session of the five-day, 23rd international convention:

"The Christian Faith can never fail because it embodies the eternal purposes of God, but it can be thwarted, frustrated and postponed because we don't act as if it were true. . . .

"We have depended upon piety as a substitute for skill. We have benevolently catered to the variable whims of our classes and substituted cheap fellowship for disciplined christian living."

He said there was a tendency to "become cynical about the effectiveness of the Sunday school because of the limited time available and because of the ineffectual use of that time."

Gas Co. Begins Improvement Project

New Main Will Be Laid, Pressure Regulators To Be Installed

A $25,000 project to improve natural gas service in Marion has been launched by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

Individual gas pressure regulators are being installed in some 789 homes and a new pipeline is being built to tie in a district pressure regulator with a main service line.

—:—

HOMES GETTING service regulators lie in an area bounded on two sides by railroad tracks of the Erie Railroad and Pennsylvania Railroad, and on the remaining sides by Oak Street and the fairgrounds.

Regulators are needed for a change in gas pressures in the area, necessitated by the increasing demand for natural gas, C. L. Baxter, local manager for the company, said. The regulators will reduce the gas pressure at homes to that formerly carried in street mains — the normal operating pressure required by gas appliances.

The regulators are being installed by Peacock Bros., Inc., Marion plumbing and heating firm. Customers will be notified individually when the work is to be done, Baxter said. They will be able to continue using their gas-burning appliances and equipment without making changes, he emphasized.

A regulator will be placed near the gas meter of each home. There will be a short interruption of service during installation.

—:—

TESTS WILL BE made at the time regulators are installed. Gas company service men will check the customer's service line leading from the curb box to the meter, and the house lines from the meter to appliances.

A four-inch pipeline, approximately 250 feet long, is being built west from a district regulator just south of the Big Four Railroad to a main supply line in Leader St.

Ohio Fuel crews are building the pipeline. The entire project is expected to be completed in about three months, Baxter said.

Huge Reserves Of Coal Found In Eastern Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay reported today the Geological Survey lists recoverable coal reserves in the Pittsburgh bed of Belmont County, Ohio, at 1,929 million tons.

This amount of coal would fill 38 million railroad cars and form a train of cars 250,000 miles long, the survey said.

The new estimate of reserves is based on field work by the Geological Survey supplemented by data on the Pittsburgh coal bed from files of the Ohio Geological Survey and from mine and drill-hole records provided by mining companies and individuals.

While the Pittsburgh coal bed has been mined in Belmont County for more than 100 years, 70 per cent of the coal still remains in the ground. This large reserve of coal in the highly industrialized upper Ohio River Valley is of primary importance to the economy of the area, the Department of the Interior reported.

Baby Sitter, 14, Gets Into Dutch

Samples Beer, Ends Up in Juvenile Court

A 14-year-old Marion youth, baby sitting with four children at a Park St. residence, sampled the contents of a refrigerator Saturday night and wound up in the soup.

Police said the youth drank four cans of beer and was tackling a fifth when they arrived at the house.

After the fourth can, he went out on the street for some air, and was seen staggering along E. Fairground St. by a passing policeman in a cruiser. The officer followed him to the Park St. residence, and by the time he knocked on the door, the youth was starting on his fifth can.

The patrolman contacted relatives of the boy and the younger children and later placed them all in the custody of the 14-year old boy's grandfather, but not before issuing a citation for the boy and his parents to appear in Marion County Juvenile Court August 4 for a hearing on an intoxication charge.

2 Held for Investigation Of Molestation Attempt

Two Marion men taken into custody by city police over the weekend on charges of intoxication were held also for investigation of a complaint they had attempted to molest an eight-year-old girl.

Police were called at 2:06 p.m. Saturday by the mother of the girl. She said the girl was brought home by a neighbor who had seen the two men try to coax the girl into their car. The neighbor gave police the license number of the car and a few minutes later a patrolman spotted the car and stopped it.

After taking the occupants to the police station, the little girl was brought in to identify the men. She identified the older man, 45, who she said tried to get her to get in the car with him. The other man is 28.

Parents of the girl said they plan to file molestation charges against the older man, police said.

Hundreds Flee As 3 Volcanoes In Chile Erupt

2 Dead, 35 Believed Trapped in Area of Deadly Gas Fumes

VALDIVIA, Chile (AP)—Three volcanoes continued violent eruptions in southern Chile's lake district today, sending hundreds of weary and terrified persons fleeing from their homes.

Pilots flying over the area 470 miles south of Santiago reported a third volcano, Mt. Choshuenco, had joined Nilahue and Rinihue mountains in spewing ashes, white hot stones and poisonous gases over a wide area.

Two persons have been reported dead since the eruptions began Tuesday. Thirty-four others, previously feared asphyxiated by the poison fumes, were sighted in a forest alongside the Nilahue River. Army rescue patrols set out for them.

Thirty-five persons were believed trapped without food in another area of heavy gas concentration.

More than 400 persons were reported fleeing on foot, their exhausted children in their arms, through the mountains. The gases and hail of hot stones and ashes slowed their progress.

Some 400 families already had fled the resort town of Ranco, on the shore of Lake Ranco between Rinihue and Nilahue. Choshuenco is 30 miles north of Rinihue.

The governor of Valdivia province, Alejandro Acuna Nunez, after a tour of the devastated region, described the eruptions as "the greatest catastrophe of this type ever witnessed in Chile." He reported ashes and lava had covered the fields over a large area, burning crops and grazing ranges and killing thousands of cattle.

Church Activities

Three new members were welcomed into the group when the Intermediate MYF of the Claridon Methodist Church met Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelley in Claridon. The new members are JoAnn Haley, Tim Turner and Carolyn Earl.

Dick Kelley presided for the meeting and devotions were conducted by Sue Earl. A social hour followed and refreshments were served with Carolyn Earl and Donald Gill in charge. For the next meeting, a work period will be held at the Claridon Youth Center.

Doll Chief Says Protest on Ike's Gifts 'Mistake'

NEW YORK, (AP)—Doll manufacturer David Rosenstein has sent apologies to President Eisenhower for a protest over the President's purchase of Swiss dolls for his grandchildren.

Rosenstein, president of the National Doll Manufacturers Assn., said Sunday the complaint, sent out under his name, was the work of an overzealous press agent. Rosenstein said he had not authorized the publicity release, and his personal feelings are exactly opposite to what it said:

The release sent to news media had quoted Rosenstein as saying the entire American doll industry was "shocked" by the President's purchase of Swiss-made dolls while in Geneva for the Big Four conference.

Actually, Rosenstein said, he was flattered by the President's choice of dolls as gifts and he himself had bought dolls at the same shop in Geneva during one of his visits there.

The protest to the President brought complaints from several members of the doll association, Rosenstein said, as well as bitter criticism from a number of anonymous letter writers.

Potatoes still remain the chief crop of Maine's Aroostook County, despite a growing diversity of agricultural products there.

Phelps Signs, First Break in Copper Strike

DOUGLAS, Ariz. (AP) — Phelps Dodge Corp. and the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (ind) agreed on a new contract today signaling the first major break in the nation's copper strike.

The new contract provides for wage increases of 11½ to 17½ cents and the complicated new health and welfare plan. Wages go up from $13.12 - $19.04 a day to $14.04-$20.44.

The wage adjustment is the same as that won last week by nonstriking miners affiliated with the AFL Metal Trades Council. The agreement runs to July 1956 and affects 23,000 workers.

Ratification meetings will be held Wednesday, said Federal Conciliator W. P. Halloran.

Bank Is 'Broke' At Monte Carlo

Institution on Riviera Is Declared Bankrupt

MONTE CARLO (AP)—The Monaco court locked the doors today on the Riviera principality's former leading bank after adjudging the institution bankrupt.

In closing the Monaco Banking and Precious Metals Co., the court noted that Managing Director Constant Liambey is under house arrest at his villa on nearby Cap Ferrat, in France.

He is charged with mismanagement of the bank funds. Previously investigators said he had plunged heavily in television stocks which did not pay off.

Unofficial estimates of the bank's deficit run to three billion francs, about 8½ million dollars. The Monaco government, which was a big depositor and then made a series of advances to stave off a run, was reported to have about two billion francs at stake.

When the shortages touched off rumors which sent depositors flocking for their money several weeks ago, Monaco's ruling Prince Rainier III suspended and then dismissed four officials who had been handling the government funds and the prince's personal account.

Paris Designer Dior Brings Out A 'Y Silhouette'

PARIS (AP) — Christian Dior brought back bosoms today, only a year after abolishing them. His new silhoutette is the Y, and here's why:

The bustline blossoms out, tapers to a slim tight waist in its natural place, and continues in a hipless stem-tight skirt.

Out — by order of the master — are his own pets, long waists and jackets, loose waists and hats so small as to be nearly invisible.

In their place are a tiny, high waistline, often belted, short jackets that are really more like boleros, and big bulky hats that, when done in fur, look like a Davey Crockett coonskin cap, minus the tail.

Camisole or underslip dresses are straight and skinny with shoulder straps on a straight-across decolletage. Caftan garments, based on the Eastern Jewish costume, are slit up to the bustline, hanging in flat, straight panels.

For after dark, Dior upends his Y for huge parachute skirts on slim bodices. The oriental influences come out in dazzling embroideries, Persian rug prints, Turkish trouser skirts, and Eastern turbans.

Skirts are shorter only by a hairline. For evening they are floor length, or ankle length in front and trailing in a train behind. There are also slinky satin sheaths with boat necklines that bare the shoulder blades.

Better Than Tax Cut, Senator Feels

Bridges Views Balanced Budget as Vote-Maker

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today Republicans will fare better in the 1956 presidential campaign if they face the voters with a balanced budget than they could by cutting taxes.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, and Sen. Byrd (D-Va), chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, expressed the view in separate interviews that the budget won't be balanced if there are any tax reductions.

Can't Do Both

"As far as I am concerned," Bridges said, "I believe we will be much better off in the campaign if we balance the budget than if we try to cut taxes. We can't do both."

Byrd, who didn't support Democratic nominee Adlai E. Stevenson in 1952, said that if President Eisenhower wants to match federal income and outgo he will have to oppose tax reductions.

Eisenhower has said it may be possible to cut taxes as soon as budget balancing is in sight. Democrats, who sponsored an unsuccessful effort to whittle individual income taxes in the expiring congressional session, already are working on plans to bring a tax reduction program before Congress early next year.

2 Per Cent Cut Needed

Byrd estimated that budget balancing would be possible with a 2 per cent reduction in this year's government outlays—budgeted at 62 billion dollars—if revenue continues to exceed estimates.

He said that far from being opposed to tax reductions, he would be strongly in favor of them "so long as they are not made out of borrowed money."

The administration supported most of the tax cuts aggregating some seven billion dollars annually which took effect last year.

Byrd said he thinks savings in expenditures can be made in several fields, particularly in foreign aid. Bridges said he thinks savings can be made "all down the line."

Moslem Feast Brings Wave of Morocco Riots

RABAT, French Morocco (AP)—The Moslem feast of Aid-el-Kebir brought widespread new rioting to French Morocco over the weekend. Thirty nationalist rioters were killed and scores of others, including French troops and Moroccan police, were wounded.

Seven persons were killed Sunday in clashes between police and nationalists defying tight military patrolling. On Saturday 23 died and many others were wounded in riots at Marrakech and Moulay Idriss.

Fires set by terrorists in many parts of Marrakech still smouldered.

In Algeria, French Foreign Legionnaires reported they had killed 30 rebels in a gang of 100 they had surrounded in the Nemencha Mountains. One Legionnaire was killed and several others wounded. Fighting was reported continuing.

The operation was a mopup of rebels believed to have ambushed a Foreign Legion convoy in the mountains last Wednesday and Thursday, when 25 Legionnaires and 70 to 80 rebels were killed.

Gilbert Grandval, new French resident general in Morocco, had an audience Sunday with the aged pro-French Sultan Mohammed Moulay Ben Arafa, extending best wishes to the Sultan for his person and empire. It was noted Grandval did not mention the Sultan's continued reign.

Grandval has been reported ready to recommend that the Sultan step down by Aug. 20 in the interest of political peace.

Toronto Lass Is Youngest To Cross Channel

DOVER, England, (AP)—As fresh as if she had just completed a dip in her neighborhood pool, Marilyn Bell, 17-year-old Toronto schoolgirl, basked in the limelight of the British Isles today.

The youngest person ever to swim the English Channel, Marilyn stumbled out of the surf Sunday to be greeted by Florence Chadwick, who holds the women's time record for channel crossings.

None the worse for wear, she simply seemed tired and was placed under the case of a physician.

Marilyn never was in trouble, although thousands of spectators moaned in unison when she was caught by the tricky current a few miles from Dover.

Her time was 14 hours 36 minutes. Brenda Fisher of England holds the east-west record of 12 hours 43 minutes. Miss Chadwick, who already has swum the difficult stretch of water three times, holds the west-east mark of 14 hours 42 minutes.

The channel is only 21 miles at the narrowest spot, but the tides are treacherous.
